Jerry RICHARDSON

owner/founder

College:..... Wofford College
Birthdate:.....7/18/36
NFL: .....17th Season
Panthers:.....17th Season

Jerry Richardson is a native Carolinian whose dream was to bring NFL football and the world championship he knew as a player in the League to his home. With the Panthers in their second decade, Richardson has firmly established the NFL into the Carolina landscape while dedicating his efforts to making the rest of his vision a reality.

On October 26, 1993, Richardson became the first former NFL player since George Halas to become an owner when the Carolinas were unanimously awarded the NFL's 29th franchise.

A lifelong resident of the Carolinas, Richardson and his wife, Rosalind Sallenger Richardson, have two sons, Jon and Mark, and a daughter, Ashley Richardson Allen, of Charlotte. The Richardsons have nine grandchildren and live in Charlotte.

Edited Excerpt from Johnny Unitas: America's Quarterback

A Lasting Impression

Jerry Richardson, a tall, shy receiver was one of the newcomers to the Colts in 1959. Like Unitas, he came from a small college. He had played college football in South Carolina at Wofford College, and Richardson always seemed to be explaining just where Wofford was.

There were approximately one dozen other receivers running around trying to make a lasting impression, one that would enable them to fill the sole spot on the roster. Richardson's chances were not exactly promising, being taken in the 13th round and the 153rd player overall.

Unitas saw the underdog in Richardson, who had married his college sweetheart, Rosalind Sallenger. When training camp opened for the 1959 season, Richardson had no way to get to practice, so Unitas helped him out. He picked him up in the front of the rented house every morning to drive him to camp. They got along fine. Unitas didn't talk, and neither did the rookie, which suited them both.

The Touchdown Catch

Late in the 1959 championship game, was Baltimore head coach Weeb Ewbank thinking of a field goal to give the Colts an eight point lead in the 4th quarter against the New York Giants? Richardson, the rookie receiver Unitas chauffeured during training camp was waiting to return the favor by bringing in the play that Ewbank wanted.

"I stood next to Weeb and looked at him for the play," recalls Richardson. "I finally asked him what the play was and he remarked, 'Just tell Unitas to score.'"

Given the opportunity to score a seemingly safe field goal or a touchdown Unitas would always go for the six points.

"Raymond Berry was split on the left and would make his cut into the middle underneath the linebacker. I lined up close to the tackle and would swing wide to the outside. It really was Berry's play all the way. He had done it a thousand times. But Unitas looked off Berry, and I looked around and saw the ball coming to me. I squeezed it tight and went into the end zone standing up. I never expected the ball and neither did the Giants."

The rookie's touchdown was the clincher. The Colts moved closer to the championship with a 21-9 lead.

Now in its 14th season of operation, Bank of America Stadium remains at the top of the NFL's venues as a result of the stewardship of Jon Richardson. Over 20 facilities have opened or undergone major renovations since Bank of America Stadium opened in 1996, but the leadership of Richardson has enabled it to maintain the highest standard of customer service.

The most recent improvements unveiled last season were a new scoreboard and the innovative Gridiron Club, the latest reflections of his commitment to providing a fan-friendly, state-of-art structure for Panthers fans.

As the first full-time employee of the project, Richardson has been on the job since stadium construction and his commitment to the fans has never wavered. From the detailed landscaping surrounding the building to the carefully manicured playing field consistently ranked as one of the best natural fields in surveys by the NFLPA, Bank of America Stadium remains among the League's finest.

The $14 million scoreboard and sound system installed last year replaced the original stadium boards with advanced Mitsubishi technology and tripled the video display size of the old board while having four times as much resolution. The other well-received innovation was the new luxury seating Gridiron Club, with its high back theatre chairs, plasma screen televisions and unique amenities on the club level.

They are just the latest in a series of stadium improvements in recent years. Other projects include a suite expansion in 1997, a $5.5 million club level renovation in 2003 and before the 2007 season, Daktronics LED boards were installed from goal line to goal line in the seating bowl.

In 2003, Bank of America Stadium was one of the facilities cited when the National Building Museum named the NFL a recipient of The Honor Award in recognition of the important role that football stadiums have played in the physical revitalization of American cities, as well as their architectural and engineering excellence.

The first 13 seasons have often put Jon and the facility to the test with 131 sellouts in the 133 NFL games played in the stadium. Under Jon, quality has been the goal from the start and, at a cost of approximately $187 million, privately funded Bank of America Stadium has proven to be a bargain by any assessment. With generous ratios of concession points of sale to an above-average ratio of restroom facilities, the stadium has proven to be convenient for fans since its inception. Bank of America Stadium still remains a model for stadium design and innovation.

In addition to hosting over 100 Panthers games since 1996, the facility has accommodated a variety of events, ranging from the Rev. Billy Graham's 1996 Carolinas Crusade to the Rolling Stones "Bridges to Babylon" tour. It also has been the site for a number of college football games as well the men's NCAA College Cup soccer game for two years and U.S. Women's World Cup soccer team exhibition matches in 1999 and 2000. The past seven years have seen the stadium host the Meineke Car Care Bowl, one of the most successful start-up bowl games in NCAA history. Most recently, the stadium was selected as the site of the 2010 and 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Championship Game and is a potential site for a future World Cup match.

Jon was a three-year letterman and two-year starter at wide receiver for the University of North Carolina, where he led the team in receptions in 1981. His success with the Tar Heels earned him a training camp tryout with the Baltimore Colts in 1982. After receiving his degree in economics in 1982, Jon spent three years in the food industry before returning to North Carolina to earn his MBA in 1987. He then began A-OK Home Services in Chapel Hill and sold the successful enterprise after five years. In 1994, he joined the Panthers.

Jon is a trustee at Fork Union Military Academy. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Johnson, who is a senior at Wofford, where he plays football, and two daughters, Rose, who is a freshman at Wofford, and Claire, who is a high school sophomore. The Richardson family lives in Charlotte.

In an economically challenging environment, the Panthers business operations remain under the steady hand of Mark Richardson as they have been since the franchise's beginning. As the team's first employee, the Panthers are fortunate to have someone who is familiar with the ebb and flow that accompany pro football. While the records may fluctuate, the business of football has remained solid under Richardson.

The Panthers have been one of the NFL leaders under the stewardship of Richardson as team president. His integrated marketing approach of team resources such as radio and television, in-stadium advertising and the internet have become a model in the sports industry and the efficiency of such an approach has become most evident.

With the foresight of a regional concept under Richardson the Panthers have exceeded every expectation since their conception. Whether in marketing, television ratings, attendance, or stadium naming rights, the Panthers have been able to meet or surpass the predicted ceilings for the franchise.

Bank of America Stadium has sold out 131 of 133 playing dates since the stadium opened in 1996. Like the attendance, the name of the stadium is a testament to Richardson's marketing ingenuity. Originally named Ericsson Stadium, the facility was a forerunner in naming rights agreements. The renaming of the structure to Bank of America Stadium occurred on the eve of Carolina's 2003 NFC Championship Game and reinforced one of the strongest sponsorship agreements in the National Football League.

The Panthers reflect a unique blend of traditionalism and state-of-the art technology under Mark.

In ESPN The Magazine's fan satisfaction ranking of all professional sports teams, the Carolina Panthers have consistently ranking high among over one hundred pro sports franchises. The team's training camp at Wofford College was included in the top five for fan friendliness by Peter King of Sports Illustrated. The Panthers television ratings throughout the Carolinas have steadily increased over the years. On the field, the team's 68 wins since 2002 are sixth most in the NFL.

Bank of America Stadium's reputation as one of the foremost sports venues in the country is a reflection of Mark's commitment to providing the best for Carolina's supportive fan base. From location to financing, he played an integral role in the stadium's origins. When the cost of a stadium and a franchise appeared prohibitive, he helped identify the Permanent Seat License concept that is now commonplace in the sports world. He also guided the land acquisition and contributed to a construction process that was so ideal it has been honored by the National Building Museum for urban revitalization, design excellence and civic pride.

The marketing success is further validation for many of the early franchise decisions in which Mark played a lead role, including the design of the team uniforms and development of the award-winning logo. The Panthers have been at the forefront of business development in the NFL, becoming one of the first teams to bring its radio and television packages in-house.

He has served nine years on the prestigious NFL Competition Committee and Mark's evolution as a League leader has continued as a member of the Broadcast Committee and the NFL Network Operations Committee.

In addition to earning an undergraduate degree in business administration from Clemson University in 1983 and an MBA from the University of Virginia in 1987, Mark has an athletic background that includes playing for Clemson's 1981 National Championship football team and ACC Championship teams in 1981 and 1982. Born July 29, 1960, Mark has lived in the Carolinas most of his life. He now resides in Charlotte and is active in the community as a board member of several organizations, including the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, Charlotte Regional Partnership and the Classroom Central Advisory Council. He is also a member of the Clemson University College of Business and Behavioral Science Advisory Board. Mark has a son, Ace, and a daughter, Raven.

John FOX
head coach

College:	San Diego State
Birthdate:	2/8/55
NFL:	21st Season
Panthers:	8th Season

There are few challenges John Fox has not met and answered while becoming the winningest coach in the history of the Carolina Panthers. As a result, the Panthers have made three playoff appearances, reached two NFC Championship games and a Super Bowl and won two NFC South titles and an NFC Championship in seven seasons.

In compiling a 63-49 regular season record and a 5-3 postseason mark, Fox has demonstrated remarkable consistency while guiding his team through the peaks and valleys that accompany an NFL season.

- In his first year, the Panthers were coming off a one-win season that included 15 consecutive losses and responded with a six-game improvement under Fox to go 7-9 in 2002.

- A year later, Carolina struggled through a three-game losing streak after jumping off to a 5-0 start, but Fox steadied the ship, and the Panthers eventually reached the Super Bowl after winning the NFC South title.

- In 2004, Carolina started the season 1-7 while losing its three top running backs but recovered to win six of the last eight games.

- In 2005, a gut-wrenching home loss to Dallas put the Panthers playoff hopes in jeopardy, but Fox rallied the team for a season-ending win at Atlanta and directed Carolina to the NFC Championship game.

- Two years later, Carolina became the first team in a decade to win at least one game with four different starting quarterbacks, carving out seven victories after an elbow injury sidelined starter Jake Delhomme for the season.

- A year ago, the Panthers equaled a team record with 12 victories and won the NFC South for a second time under Fox.

During that time Fox has shown an ability to win in a variety of ways. The dramatic improvement from 2001 to 2002 was the result of a defense that jumped from 31st to second in the NFL under Fox's guidance. The 2003 Super Bowl team combined a running game powered by Stephen Davis and DeShaun Foster with a strong defense, and the 2005 playoff team parlayed the aerial attack of Jake Delhomme and Steve Smith to reach NFC Championship Game. In winning the 2008 NFC South title, the Panthers rode an offense that ranked seventh in the League in scoring off a record setting running attack.

Under Fox, the Panthers have averaged nearly 10 wins a season and have developed into one of the most consistent teams in the NFL. In those seven seasons, Carolina's fewest number of wins were seven. Only four teams – Carolina, Denver, New England, and Indianapolis -- did not experience a double digit losing season during that time.

While Delhomme has been a staple at quarterback, the Panthers have also shown the ability under Fox to win games with rookies such as Matt Moore or veterans like Vinnie Testaverde, who became the oldest quarterback to win as a starter in League history in 2007. When Davis and Foster went down to injuries in 2004, unknown Nick Goings rushed for five 100-yard games to ignite a late season playoff bid.

Fox has made a habit of being at his best in the most dire situations or when the stakes are the highest. Carolina's 5-3 playoff record under Fox is one of the best winning percentages in the NFL. In compiling that mark, he has put his name alongside some of the game's coaching royalty with the following achievements:

- The Panthers four consecutive playoff road victories under Fox tied the NFL record held by the Dallas Cowboys under Tom Landry.

- With four postseason road victories, Fox trails only Landry (seven) and Joe Gibbs (five).
- In guiding the Panthers to the Super Bowl in 2003, Fox joined Vince Lombardi and Bill Parcells as the only coaches in NFL history to inherit a one-win team and take it to the playoffs two years later.

However, those accomplishments only begin to tell Fox's story. The 41 wins in his first four years more than doubled the Panthers total in the previous four seasons (20).

His impact was immediate. In his first season, Carolina improved its record by six games, going from 1-15 in 2001 to 7-9 in 2002. The six-game improvement was the best in the NFL that season and the best jump for a rookie head coach since the League instituted the 16-game schedule in 1978.

That success laid the foundation for his second season as the Panthers, a consensus last-place preseason selection, stunned the experts by winning the NFC South before advancing to the Super Bowl with playoff wins versus Dallas, at St. Louis and at Philadelphia. The victory over the Rams stopped a 14-game St. Louis home winning streak in the fifth-longest overtime game in League history.

The 2004 season saw Fox again at his best in an adverse situation as injuries derailed a promising season and the Panthers were mired in last place midway through the season at 1-7. Faced with a depleted roster and the greatest challenge of his short head-coaching career, Fox responded by leading Carolina to six wins in the final eight weeks, narrowly missing a second consecutive playoff berth.

The strong finish set up another playoff run by Carolina in 2005 as the Panthers recorded an 11-5 regular season mark to make the NFC postseason as a Wild Card. Once again, Fox was at his best when his team had to win the final week of the regular season on the road at Atlanta following a heartbreaking loss at home to Dallas, and the Panthers responded with a 44-11 victory. Then came playoff wins at the New York Giants and at the Chicago Bears before a loss in the NFC Championship game at Seattle.

In 2006, the Panthers lost three starters in their opening game, but managed an 8-8 record to provide back-to-back non-losing seasons for the first time in team history.

His success is no surprise to those who know him best, particularly Panthers General Manager Marty Hurney, who worked with Fox in San Diego in the 1990's.

"He has it," says Hurney. "He has great people skills. He listens to everybody, and he has defensive expertise. And he has a tremendous presence. When he walks down the hall, he affects everybody."

It was those intangibles, combined with a thorough knowledge of the game that led the Panthers to Fox in 2002. And the fruits of Fox's labor are evident on every level.

Six different defensive players have gone to the Pro Bowl since his arrival with defensive end Julius Peppers making three straight Pro Bowls between 2004 and 2006. Defensive tackle Kris Jenkins played in two under Fox's tutelage, while defensive end Mike Rucker and linebackers Dan Morgan and Mark Fields were named to the team once. In 2008, Peppers returned to the postseason all-star game and second-year linebacker Jon Beason was named for the first time. On offense, wide receiver Steve Smith has made three appearances under Fox along with one for quarterback Jake Delhomme, guard Mike Wahle, running back Stephen Davis and tackle Jordan Gross, who was a starter in his first appearance last season.

Changing the mindset was equally important and possibly more challenging than improving the personnel. After going 3-16 in games decided by three points or less from 1999-2002, the Panthers tied an NFL record with seven victories by three-points-or-less in 2003. Seven times they drove for the game-winning score in overtime or with less than two minutes remaining in regulation during the regular season.

The Panthers opened Fox's first season with a 10-7 victory over Baltimore, ending the long losing streak and setting the tone for a season that included several milestones:

- The six-game improvement was the largest in the NFL in 2002, and only two previous rookie head coaches had a more significant impact on their team's record since the NFL implemented a 16-game schedule in 1978; Jim Haslett in 2000 and Bobby Ross in 1992.
- Carolina's defense became the only unit since the NFL merger in 1970 to improve to second in the NFL in overall defense after placing last the previous season.
- The Panthers ranked in the top five of 10 different defensive categories, leading the NFL in rushing yards per attempt and sacks per pass play and ranking second in third down efficiency and third in first downs allowed per game.

• The 52 sacks recorded by Carolina in 2002 more than doubled the total of the previous season and is the second-most in team history.

Only two starters – Smith and fullback Brad Hoover -- remain from the team Fox inherited. The roster in 2007 contained 12 rookies. In the last two seasons, more than 20 rookies have dotted the Panthers roster.

Fox's ability to adjust and move forward was never more evident than in 2004 when the Panthers became just the third team since 1990 to finish with seven wins after starting 1-7 and the sixth team since 1974 to follow up a 1-7 start with seven victories.

In the face of losing Smith at wide receiver, Jenkins at defensive tackle and Davis at running back, Fox fell back on a couple of his favorite euphemisms: "Everybody starts out a nobody," and "If we didn't think you were good, you wouldn't be here."

The words proved prophetic as former undrafted free agent running back Goings responded with five 100-yard games, rookie wide receiver Keary Colbert caught 47 passes and Travelle Wharton, another rookie, stepped in as a starter on the offensive line.

In Fox's rookie season as head coach, the Panthers started 3-0 but lost eight consecutive games amid suspensions, injuries and assorted setbacks. Though on the ropes, Carolina never buckled and rallied to win four of its final five games.

After an 8-2 start in 2003, the Panthers slipped into a three-game losing streak. However, Fox again steadied the ship and Carolina regrouped to win its final three games and the NFC South division.

The team's first playoff appearance since 1996 resulted in some of the most memorable moments in team history. Hosting the NFC Wild Card game against Dallas, the Panthers won convincingly, 29-10, accumulating 380 yards against the NFL's top ranked defense while not committing a turnover or a penalty.

A week later, the Panthers played the fifth-longest game in League history, topping St. Louis, 29-23, in the second overtime to stop the 14-game home winning streak by the Rams. Then, Carolina won its first NFC Championship by defeating Philadelphia, 14-3, on the road.

Fox culminated a 20-year odyssey when he was named head coach of the Carolina Panthers on January 26, 2002. Regarded as one of the top defensive coaches in the NFL, Fox proved to be the right choice at the right time for the franchise. Production, work ethic, enthusiasm and high energy were ingredients he brought to Carolina.

It is fitting that Fox achieved his opportunity the old fashioned way, working his way up from a graduate assistant in 1978 and making 12 stops in 17 years before being named defensive coordinator of the New York Giants in 1997. Seizing that opportunity, he annually produced highly regarded units for the Giants, known for their all-out play as well as their production.

His style and philosophy are as grounded as his career path to Carolina. It is a combination that caught the Panthers attention, for in Fox, the son of a Navy SEAL, they found a man whose passion for the game is matched by the zeal of his players on the field.

If Fox coaches with a passion, it could be that he had something to prove after so many stops. Boise, Idaho. Ames, Iowa. Lawrence, Kansas. They were all on his resumé before reaching the NFL as a secondary coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1989. Even then he stayed on the move ¬ San Diego from 1992-1993, Oakland from 1994-1995, St. Louis in 1996 before reaching the Giants as defensive coordinator.

At New York, the accolades began to build, reaching a crescendo in New York's shutout of high-powered Minnesota in the 2001 NFC Championship. The Vikings entered the game averaging more than 25 points while passing for nearly 260 yards per game. Against Fox's defense, the totals were zero points and 60 yards through the air.

It was a performance that had been building in the regular season when New York allowed only 62 first downs rushing, well below the NFL average of 98. Three opponents gained less than 200 total yards. However, it was consistency that characterized his units. During Fox's five years as coordinator, New York had 153 takeaways, the seventh-highest total in the NFC. The Giants also had a plus 25 turnover differential that ranked third in the conference and fourth in the League over the period. Pass pressure was another trademark of Fox's units. Under his tutelage, New York recorded 230 sacks, ranking third in the NFL. In 2001, Michael Strahan set a League individual record with 22.5 sacks.

Like Carolina as head coach, Fox's impact was immediate upon his arrival in New York. In 1997, Fox orchestrated a defense that led the NFL with a club record 44 takeaways and ranked first in the League in interceptions with 27. That edition of the Giants defense tied for third in the League in sacks with 54, the fourth-best total in team history. The defense was second in the NFC against the run at 90.7 yards per game and held opponents to 20 or fewer points in 12-of-16 games, including 10 or less in six of those contests.

Fox was honored as Pro Football Weekly's Assistant Coach of the Year. However, his success as a coordinator did not begin with the Giants. Before serving as a consultant to the Rams in 1996, he engineered the Oakland Raiders defense to a 10th place finish in total defense in 1994 and 11th in 1995.

Before joining Oakland, Fox was the secondary coach under Bobby Ross at San Diego in 1992 and 1993. Fox started his NFL coaching career with the Pittsburgh Steelers as a defensive back coach from 1989-1991, overseeing the top rated pass defense in 1990.

Fox moved to the Steelers from the University of Pittsburgh, where he served as defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the Panthers from 1986-1988. In each of his three seasons, the Pittsburgh pass defense was statistically ranked among the top 10 in the nation.

Prior to his three-year stay at Pittsburgh, Fox made eight moves in as many seasons as he worked his way through the coaching ranks, including a foray in professional football with the Los Angeles Express of the USFL in 1985.

Starting as a graduate assistant at his alma mater of San Diego State in 1978, Fox became an assistant at United States International University a year later and made a succession of moves to Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983) and Iowa State (1984).

A native of Virginia Beach, VA, Fox was born February 8, 1955, and grew up in the San Diego area after moving at age 15. He attended Castle Park High School in Chula Vista and played football at Southwestern Junior College in Chula Vista (1974-75) before going to San Diego State, where he played defensive back for the Aztecs. He graduated from San Diego State with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned a secondary education teaching credential in 1977.

Fox and his wife, Robin, have three sons: Matthew, Mark and Cody, and a daughter, Halle. Along with his football accomplishments, Fox has been a community leader in the Carolinas. He and Robin co-chair the annual Angels & Stars Gala benefiting St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and are frequent participants in community charity fundraisers.

Jim SKIPPER

assistant head coach/running backs

College:	Whittier College
Birthdate:	1/23/49
NFL:	22nd Season
Panthers:	8th Season

COACHING: Resourcefulness and ingenuity are only two of the characteristics that led John Fox to promote Jim Skipper to assistant head coach, but they may be the two that have served him best as running backs coach since 2002.When dealt a healthy hand last season, the Panthers running back combination of DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart rewrote the team's rushing records.

Despite the effectiveness of the passing game being hampered by the quarterback carousel a year earlier, the Panthers' 1,824 rushing yards were the second best in team history. The previous season the Panthers rushed for a single game team record 242 rushing yards against St. Louis, breaking the previous team mark of 223-yards in the NFC Wild Card game against the New York Giants a year earlier. Whether Stephen Davis, DeShaun Foster, Nick Goings, DeAngelo Williams or Brad Hoover, Skipper has consistently coaxed the best out of the Panthers running backs.

His best effort may have come in 2004 when Carolina started four different players at halfback because of injuries. Foster recorded a 100-yard rushing game, and Hoover rushed for 99 yards in his only start at halfback. During the last eight games of the 2004 campaign, Goings, a former undrafted free agent, recorded five 100-yard rushing games. Since joining the Panthers, Skipper has used eight different starting halfbacks, and six of those have produced 100-yard contests.

With a healthy backfield contingent in 2003, Skipper coached the Panthers to a team record 2,091 yards rushing while helping Davis set a club individual record with 1,444 yards on the way to a Pro Bowl season. During his first year in Carolina, Skipper nurtured the Panthers running game to a 214-yard improvement over the 2001 campaign despite losing starter Lamar Smith after 11 games and Foster for the season in training camp.

A coaching veteran with more than 30 years of experience, including 21 in the NFL, Skipper came to Carolina after spending four years with the New York Giants and 2001 as head coach of the XFL's San Francisco Demons. He began his NFL coaching career as running backs coach with the New Orleans Saints in 1986 and served in that capacity through 1995. During his 10-year tenure with New Orleans, Skipper coached two Pro Bowlers, Rueben Mayes in 1986 and 1987 and Dalton Hilliard in 1989. Mayes' 1,353 yards in 1986 and Hilliard's 1,262 in 1989 still stand among the 10 highest single-season rushing totals in Saints history.

Skipper moved to Arizona in 1996 and coached with the Cardinals for one season, in which fullback Larry Centers was named to the Pro Bowl. Following his stint with the Cardinals, Skipper assumed the same role with the New York Giants from 1997-2000. In his first season with New York, the team finished seventh in the NFL in rushing with an average of 124.3 yards per game. As an XFL head coach, Skipper led the Demons to a 5-5 record and a playoff berth, advancing to the league championship game. Skipper entered coaching as the defensive backs coach at Cal Poly-Pomona in 1974 before joining San Jose State in 1977. He switched to offense as running backs coach at Pacific in 1979 and then coached running backs at Oregon from 1980-82. Skipper made his foray into the professional coaching ranks with the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars from 1983-85.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: A graduate of Whittier College, Skipper played defensive back and also served as a kick and punt returner for the Poets. Born January 23, 1949, in Breaux Bridge, LA, he grew up in Brawley, CA. Skipper and his wife, ElMarie, have three sons, Kelly, Timmy and Courtney. Kelly is the running backs coach for the Oakland Raiders. Timmy, who is the linebackers coach at Fresno State, played linebacker at Fresno State from 1997-2000. In a unique distinction, Skipper coached running back Lorenzo Neal at New Orleans, and Skipper's son Kelly coached Neal's son in college at Fresno State. DeShaun Foster also was coached by Kelly at UCLA.

HISTORY: Defensive back Whittier College 1971-72. College coach: Cal Poly-Pomona 1974-76, San Jose State 1977-78, Pacific 1979, Oregon 1980-82. Pro coach: Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars (USFL) 1983-85, New Orleans Saints 1986-95, Arizona Cardinals 1996, New York Giants 1997-2000, San Francisco Demons (XFL) 2001 (head coach), joined Panthers in 2002.

Jeff DAVIDSON

offensive coordinator

College:	Ohio State
Birthdate:	10/3/67
NFL:	15th Season
Panthers:	3rd Season

COACHING: Jeff's second season as Carolina's offensive coordinator proved to be one of the most productive in team history. The Panthers rewrote the team's rushing records while finishing 7th in scoring and 10th in total offense.

In his first year change was the constant for Jeff. Four different starting quarterbacks never started more than three games in a row, but Davidson still coaxed the second best rushing season in team history while Carolina became the first team in ten years to win at least one game with four different starting quarterbacks.

Davidson joined the Panthers as offensive coordinator after two seasons in Cleveland following a most successful eight-year stint at New England. While with the Patriots, he contributed to four division titles, five playoff appearances, three conference titles and three Super Bowl championships as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach from 1997-2004.

His success with the Patriots led Jeff to Cleveland in 2005 as offensive line coach, and his impact was immediate when he helped the Browns break a twenty-year drought without a 1,000 yard rusher. Reuben Droughns easily eclipsed that milestone with 1,232 yards behind an offensive line, which included three new starters.

The offensive line was bludgeoned with injuries in 2006 as Davidson's role was expanded six games into the season when he was named offensive coordinator. Despite the setbacks, tight end Kellen Winslow and wide receiver Braylon Edwards had breakthrough seasons with 89 and 61 receptions, respectively.

A member of New England's staff in 2004, he and offensive line coach, Dante Scarnecchia, worked with a unit that saw only three lineup changes during the entire season as the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXIX. The Patriots proved adept running and passing as Corey Dillon rushed for 1,535 yards and quarterback Tom Brady was sacked only 26 times, sixth fewest in the NFL. Meanwhile, the New England tight ends, under Davidson's tutelage, combined for 11 touchdowns and nine pass plays of 20 yards or more.

His coaching career with the Patriots was characterized by a high level of play from the tight ends as well as the offensive line. As tight ends coach in 1997, he helped Ben Coates emerge as the team's reception leader with 66, which secured a Pro Bowl berth. He moved to assist on the offensive line for four seasons but again saw his duties expanded to include the tight ends in 2002 and tripled the receiving production for the position from the previous season.

Davidson began his NFL coaching career in 1995 as a volunteer assistant with the New Orleans Saints. A year later he was named offensive assistant, responsible for the breakdown of game tapes, opponent scouting and self scouting in addition to maintaining a number of on-field coaching responsibilities.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Coaching success is an extension of his playing career. A fifth-round draft choice of the Denver Broncos in 1990, Davidson moved into the starting lineup in his second season. He started 16 games in 1991 at left tackle and every game the following season at left guard. After signing with the Saints in 1994, a shoulder injury seven games into the season ended his career. Prior to the NFL, Davidson earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior and was a four-year letterman at Ohio State.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Jeff was born October 3, 1967 and attended Westerville North High School, where he earned Parade All-American honors as a senior. Jeff and his wife, Judi, have two sons, Nicholas and Alexander.

HISTORY: Offensive Tackle Ohio State 1986-89. Pro Offensive Lineman: Denver 1990-1992, New Orleans, 1994. Pro coach: New Orleans 1995-1996, New England 1997-2004, Cleveland 2006-2006, joined Panthers in 2007.

Ron MEEKS
defensive coordinator

College:	Arkansas State
Birthdate:	8/27/54
NFL:	19th Season
Panthers:	1st Season

COACHING: Ron Meeks takes over the Carolina Panthers defense in 2009 after overseeing the Indianapolis Colts defense for the last seven seasons. From 2002-08, Indianapolis ranked among the top seven in the NFL in points allowed five times, including tied for seventh last year.

Under Meeks' direction, the Colts produced one of the best defensive performances in franchise history in 2007. They led the NFL in scoring defense with 262 points allowed and finished third in total defense – the team's highest rating since 1971 – by surrendering just 279.7 yards per game. Additionally, Indianapolis generated the second-most take-aways in the league with 37 and tied for second with 22 interceptions. Safety Bob Sanders was named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2006, Meeks battled through injuries on a unit that peaked during the playoffs, holding three-of-four opponents to less than 100 yards rushing en route to a Super Bowl XLI championship. During the 2005 campaign, the Colts stood second in the NFL in scoring defense, yielding only 247 points – the lowest 16-game total in club history. Indianapolis' stingy defense held six opponents to nine points or less. Three players: defensive end Dwight Freeney, linebacker Cato June and Sanders, earned Pro Bowl honors.

The previous season, the Colts were first in the NFL with a plus-19 turnover margin after forcing 36 turnovers, which tied for third in the league. The defense also collected 45 sacks, which tied for third in the NFL, as Freeney set a team record with a league-leading 16 quarterback takedowns. In Meeks' first year in 2002, Indianapolis improved from 29th to eighth in the NFL in total defense and jumped from 31st to seventh in scoring defense.

Meeks joined Indianapolis from St. Louis, where he served as the secondary coach in 2001 and helped revitalize the defense. The Rams climbed from 27th to 10th in the NFL against the pass and won the NFC Championship, one season after Meeks coached the Washington Redskins defensive backs to a league rating of second against the pass in 2000.

From 1997-99 he tutored the defensive backs coach with Atlanta. The Falcons were one of three NFC teams to limit opponents to less than 200 yards passing per game in 1999, and two members of Meeks' secondary, cornerback Ray Buchanan and safety Eugene Robinson, made the Pro Bowl in 1998 when the Falcons won the NFC Championship.

Meeks began his NFL coaching career with Dallas in 1991 as a defensive assistant before spending five seasons as the defensive backs coach with Cincinnati from 1992-96. The Bengals led the NFL with 34 interceptions in 1996. Twice during his tenure, they ranked in the top 10 in the league in pass defense, placing ninth in 1994 and second in 1993.

He started his coaching career at his alma mater, Arkansas State, in 1984 prior to handling the defensive backs at Miami (FL) from 1986-87, New Mexico State in 1988 and Fresno State from 1989-90.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Meeks attended Arkansas State from 1972-76 and then played five seasons in the Canadian Football League as a defensive back for the Hamilton TigerCats, Ottawa Rough Riders and Toronto Argonauts. He has four children, Jayson, Clayton, Quenton and Sadie, and one stepson, Christopher.

HISTORY: Defensive back: Arkansas State 1972-76. Pro defensive back: Hamilton Tiger-Cats (CFL) 1977-79, Ottawa Rough Riders (CFL) 1979, Toronto Argonauts (CFL) 1980-81. College coach: Arkansas State 1984-85, Miami (FL) 1986-87, New Mexico State 1988, Fresno State 1989-1990. Pro coach: Dallas Cowboys 1991, Cincinnati Bengals 1992-96, Atlanta Falcons 1997-99, Washington Redskins 2000, St. Louis Rams 2001, Indianapolis Colts 2002-08, joined Panthers in 2009.

Brian BAKER

defensive line

College:.....Maryland
Birthdate:.....6/20/62
NFL: .....14th Season
Panthers:..... 1st Season

COACHING: Brian Baker, a veteran of 13 seasons as an NFL assistant and 12 as a college coach – including 12 in the Atlantic Coast Conference – was named the Panthers defensive line coach on February 13, 2009 following three years in the same position with the St. Louis Rams.

In 2008, Baker presided over a St. Louis defensive line that accounted for 20 of the team's 30 sacks and ranked 11th in the NFL in sacks per pass play. During the 2006 season, he coached defensive end Leonard Little, who tied for fifth in the league with 13 sacks, and defensive tackle La'Roi Glover, who collected 5.5 sacks – the sixth most by a defensive tackle in the NFC.

Prior to joining the Rams, Baker spent five years with Minnesota, serving as defensive line coach in 2001 and 2004-05 and linebackers coach from 2002-03. He was instrumental in the development of defensive tackle Kevin Williams, who made the Pro Bowl and earned Associated Press All-Pro honors in 2004. That season, Williams led all NFL defensive tackles with 11.5 sacks and teamed with defensive end Lance Johnstone to give the Vikings the third-most prolific sack tandem in the league with 22.5.

From 1997-2000, Baker tutored the defensive line for Detroit. Under his direction those four years, the Lions defensive line tallied 120.5 sacks, and two defensive linemen were selected to the Pro Bowl: defensive end Robert Porcher in 1997 and 1999 and defensive tackle Luther Elliss in 1999 and 2000. Baker's 1998 and 1999 units finished fifth and sixth, respectively, in the league in sacks per pass play, and in 1999 Porcher recorded 15 sacks, the fourth-highest total in team history.

Baker made his NFL coaching debut as defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1996 after working on the college level for 12 years, beginning in 1984 as outside linebackers coach at his alma mater, Maryland. Next, he went to Army as fullbacks coach in 1986. Baker then moved to Georgia Tech, where he coached outside linebackers from 1987-95, adding defensive coordinator responsibilities in 1995. He contributed to the staff that helped the Yellow Jackets win the National Championship as the nation's only unbeaten team with an 11-0-1 record in 1990.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Baker played outside linebacker at Maryland from 1981-83 and helped the Terrapins win the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1983. He earned his degree in marketing from Maryland in 1985. A native of Baltimore, Baker and his wife, Nevada, have three daughters: Nicole, Jade and Jasmine.

HISTORY: Linebacker Maryland 1981-83. College coach: Maryland 1984-85, Army 1986, Georgia Tech 1987-95. Pro coach: San Diego Chargers 1996, Detroit Lions 1997-2000, Minnesota Vikings 2001-05, St. Louis Rams 2006-08, joined Panthers in 2009.

Geep CHRYST

tight ends/offensive quality control

College:.....Princeton
Birthdate:.....6/25/62
NFL: .....17th Season
Panthers:.....4th Season

COACHING: Chryst is entering his third season as the team's tight end coach. While working with a youthful group last season, Chryst oversaw the development of Jeff King, Dante Rosario and Gary Barnidge. Chryst's debut as the Panthers tight end coach in 2007 resulted in the most productive season for a Carolina tight end since Wesley Walls as Jeff King caught 46 passes for 406 yards. As a group the team's tight ends combined for 57 catches and six touchdowns receptions while playing an integral blocking role in 1,824 rushing yards, second best in team history.

A 15-year veteran of the NFL, Chryst took over the tight ends during his second Panthers season and also serves as the team's quality control assistant for the offense. Coaching stops with the Chicago Bears, Arizona Cardinals (twice) and the San Diego Chargers left him more than prepared for the move.

Prior to coming to Carolina in 2006, his most recent experience was quarterbacks coach of the Cardinals from 2001-2003, where he was reunited with quarterback Jake Plummer. Under Chryst in 2001, Plummer threw 18 touchdown passes and just 14 interceptions after having 45 passes picked off the previous two seasons. Plummer had only two interceptions in his final 245 passing attempts and none in a span of 142 consecutive throws.

Under Chryst in 1998, Plummer ranked fourth in the NFL in passing, and the Cardinals won their first playoff game in 51 years. In Arizona he also played a role in the development of Josh McCown, who finished the 2003 season as the starter and led the Cardinals to a dramatic victory over the Vikings on the last play of the season.

Chryst spent five seasons (1991-1995) with the Chicago Bears as director of research/quality control, three seasons in Arizona working with tight ends (1996-97) and quarterbacks (1998) and two years as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in San Diego before returning to Arizona in 2001.

While with the Chargers, he was instrumental in the implementation and development of San Diego's productive no huddle offense in 1999. During that season, the Chargers completed the most passes (332) in 13 seasons and quarterback Jim Harbaugh enjoyed the second-highest passing production of his 15-year NFL career and became the first quarterback in team history since Hall of Famer Dan Fouts to pass for 400 yards in a game.

Three times Chryst has been a part of an offense that has ranked in the NFL top ten in rushing and three more times he has been involved in an offense ranked in the NFL top 10 in passing.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Chryst was a three-year starter at linebacker and a two-year baseball player at Princeton, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history. He added a master's degree in educational administration from Wisconsin. His wife, Shelley, played volleyball at Wyoming and on the beach in the WPVA in 1994. She was also an assistant volleyball coach at Northwestern (1994) and Wisconsin-Milwaukee (1995). They are the parents of three children - sons, Keller and Jackson, and daughter, Gillian.

Danny CROSSMAN

special teams coordinator

College:	Pittsburgh
Birthdate:	1/17/67
NFL:	7th Season
Panthers:	7th Season

COACHING: The Panthers special teams continue to be under the watchful eye of Danny Crossman, whose unit ranked among the best in 2008. Kicker John Kasay and punter Jason Baker form the nucleus of a unit that has traditionally ranked among the best in the League.

Already excellent, Kasay has only improved under Crossman's eye and Baker set back-to-back team records for net punting average in 2005 and 2006. Rookie Ryne Robinson developed as a returner during the year, but transition through losses and injuries impacted the return and coverage units.

In 2005, his first season as head special teams coach of the Panthers, Crossman nurtured the unit to one of its best seasons. The Panthers ranked ninth in the comprehensive Dallas Morning News ratings on the strength of a second place finish in punt coverage and a seventh place in kickoff coverage. That success came despite the loss of a Pro Bowl punter, but Crossman tutored newcomer Baker to first place in the NFC in net punting with an average 38.9 yards.

Crossman was named special teams coach in 2005 after serving as an assistant in the professional and college ranks. His 2003 NFL debut proved to be a resounding success as the NFC Champion's special teams units finished second in the ratings by the Dallas Morning News. Playing an integral role in that success, Crossman assisted with both the special teams units and the strength and conditioning program.

He came to the Panthers from Michigan State, where he served in 2002 as the Spartans linebackers coach and special teams coordinator, and brought an impressive resumé to Carolina. Prior to working at Michigan State, Crossman coached three seasons at Georgia Tech from 1999-01, serving as the special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach his first two years prior to tutoring the defensive backs and contributing as special teams coordinator in 2001. In 1999 and 2001, the Yellow Jackets ranked among the NCAA leaders in kickoff return average, net punting average and punt return average. Crossman coached two first-team All-ACC specialists in kicker Luke Manget and kick returner Kelley Rhino in 2001, and his special teams units led the ACC in kickoff return average and punt return average in 2000.

Crossman entered coaching at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in 1993, where he coached the defensive backs and special teams. He moved to Western Kentucky from 1994-96, handling special teams and the secondary for two seasons and the outside linebackers in 1996. Crossman then joined Central Florida as the defensive backfield and special teams coach from 1997-98.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Crossman earned three letters at the University of Pittsburgh, helping the Panthers to a combined record of 22-12-1 and appearances in the 1987 Bluebonnet Bowl and 1989 Sun Bowl, after transferring from Kansas following his freshman season. He started 11 games at fullback for the Panthers as a junior in 1988 and rushed for 273 yards and two touchdowns. Crossman was named team MVP and earned second-team All-America honors as a senior in 1989, recording 62 tackles and one interception from his strong safety position. At Kansas, he made eight starts at defensive back and posted 48 tackles and one interception to garner freshman All-America honors in 1985.

He spent parts of two seasons in the NFL with Washington in 1990 and Detroit in 1991. Crossman played two years from 1991-92 with the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football. He intercepted three passes in the inaugural World Bowl in 1991, returning one interception 20 yards for a touchdown, to earn MVP honors as London shut out Barcelona 21-0. Crossman earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and communications from Pittsburgh in 1990. He and his wife, Susan, have a son, Kyle, and a daughter, Kaylie.

HISTORY: Defensive back Kansas 1985, fullback/defensive back Pittsburgh 1987-89. Pro defensive back: London Monarchs (WLAF) 1991-92. College coach: U.S. Coast Guard Academy 1993, Western Kentucky 1994-96, Central Florida 1997-98, Georgia Tech 1999-01, Michigan State 2002. Pro coach: Joined Panthers in 2003.

Mike GILLHAMER

secondary

College: ..... Humboldt State
Birthdate: 2/20/57
NFL: ..... 10th Season
Panthers: ..... 6th Season

COACHING: Gillhamer begins his sixth season with the Panthers with an uncommon stability in the secondary as three of four starters return. After replacing one of his starting safeties for three straight seasons, Mike had to find two new starters in 2007. One of those, Chris Harris, did not arrive until training camp, but under Gillhamer's tutelage, set a team record for forced fumbles while leading the team with three recoveries. The other, Deke Cooper, tied for the team lead in interceptions.

However, turning subtraction into addition in the face of turnover is not new to Gillhamer. In his five years in Carolina, the Panthers have had seven different starters while ranking among the League leaders in pass defense.

Assuming responsibilities of the Panthers safeties in 2005, Gillhamer's task quickly became more difficult with the loss of returning starter Colin Branch in the preseason. Undaunted, he replaced Branch with Marlon McCree, who played an integral role in the Panthers finishing 3rd in NFL defense.

Gillhamer faced a similar challenge again in 2006 with the departure of McCree in free agency, but Shawn Williams moved into the spot beside Mike Minter and the Panthers finished fourth in pass defense and seventh overall. With the retirement of Mike Minter and the departure of Williams in 2007, Gillhamer again performed addition by subtraction.

It is no wonder that since his return to the NFL in 2004, Gillhamer has become a valuable member of the coaching staff. In his first season, his tutelage played a role in a Panthers defense that led the NFL with a team-record 26 interceptions and ranked second in the League with 38 take-aways, a figure that tied the team mark. In addition to finishing third in total yardage in 2005, the Carolina passing defense was ninth in overall pass defense, fourth in yards per pass and fifth in percentage of passes intercepted while picking off 23 aerials en route to the playoffs.

Armed with five years of NFL coaching experience and 21 seasons on the college level, Gillhamer came to Carolina after spending 2003 as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Louisville. Prior to working at Louisville, Gillhamer served as the secondary coach for two years at Oregon from 2001-02. In 2001, Oregon finished second in the nation, and the Ducks were Fiesta Bowl Champions.

Gillhamer began his NFL coaching career as an offensive assistant with the New York Giants in 1997, contributing on the same staff as Carolina head coach John Fox. He assisted current Panthers running backs coach Jim Skipper with the Giants running backs during his first three seasons before taking over as the running backs coach in 2000.

He broke into coaching at the College of the Sequoias in Visalia, CA, from 1979-83, overseeing the defensive line for one season before coaching the defensive backs for the remainder of his tenure. He then was the defensive backs coach at Weber State in 1984, Utah from 1985-89 and San Jose State from 1990-93. Gillhamer moved to Nevada from 1994-95, where he handled the secondary his first season and served as the defensive coordinator for one campaign in 1995 and worked as the secondary coach at Rutgers in 1996.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Gillhamer played defensive back at Carroll College in 1972 and at Wenatchee Junior College in 1973. He was named the team's most valuable defensive back in 1975 at Humboldt State. He also played baseball and ran track for the Lumberjacks. After graduating with a degree in physical education from Humboldt State in 1976, he received his master's degree in special education from there in 1981. Gillhamer and his wife, Tammy, have two daughters, Meagen and Taylor.

HISTORY: Defensive back Humboldt State 1974-75. College coach: College of the Sequoias 1979-83, Weber State 1984, Utah 1985-89, San Jose State 1990-93, Nevada 1994-95, Rutgers 1996, Oregon 2001-02, Louisville 2003. Pro coach: New York Giants 1997-2000, joined Panthers in 2004.

Dave MAGAZU
offensive line

College:.....Springfield (MA)
Birthdate:.....6/10/57
NFL: ..... 7th Season
Panthers:..... 7th Season

COACHING: Despite a number of lineup changes throughout the season, Magazu oversaw an offensive line last season that paved the way for a record setting rushing year while establishing a new mark for fewest sacks. After four years working with the tight ends, Dave Magazu returned "home" in 2007 to coach the offensive line. Prior to coming to the NFL in 2003 as a tight ends coach, Dave had spent over 20 years coaching offensive lines on the collegiate level and the return was a success by every measure. The Panthers 1,824 yards rushing were second best in team history, the 4.0 yards per carry also tied for second, and despite playing four starting quarterbacks, they surrendered just 33 sacks.

His move to tight ends was seamless because of the overlap between the two positions. With an emphasis devoted to blocking at the position, four of Carolina's top six rushing seasons have come since Magazu's arrival. In his first season, the tight ends played an integral role in setting a club record of 2,091 rushing yards to rank seventh in the League.

Before coming to the NFL, Magazu was regarded as one of the top offensive line coaches in college football. He spent 23 years as a college coach, the last four as Boston College's offensive line coach. At Boston College, he developed a number of pro prospects, including New England Patriots center Dan Koppen, and Chris Snee, the New York Giants second-round draft choice in 2004. During Magazu's tenure at Boston College from 1999-2002, the Eagles annually ranked among the most productive rushing teams in the nation.

His offensive lines were among the best pass blocking units in the country, allowing just six sacks in 2000 and 15 in 2001. Four of his linemen were named All-Big East in 2001 and three earned All-Conference honors in 2002. Tackle Darnell Alford was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in 2000, guard Paul Zukauskas was selected by the Cleveland Browns in 2001 and tackle Marc Colombo was a first-round choice by Chicago in 2002 in addition to Koppen's selection by New England in 2003.

Magazu arrived at Boston College after serving two years as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Memphis from 1997-98. From 1995-96, he coached at Kentucky, where Moe Williams led the SEC in rushing in 1995. He started his coaching career at Ithaca College in 1980 and moved to Western Michigan in 1981, Eastern Michigan in 1982, Michigan in 1983, Northern Illinois in 1984 and Ball State in 1985. He then spent three years at Navy from 1987-89 before going to Indiana State from 1990-91 and Colorado State from 1992-94. While at Colorado State in 1994, the Rams won the Western Athletic Conference title for the first time in school history and ranked 16th in the nation.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Magazu is a 1980 graduate of Springfield (MA) College, where he was a four-year starter at defensive tackle. He worked toward a master's degree in physical education in 1981 from Ithaca College. Born June 10, 1957, in Taunton, MA, Magazu and his wife, Carrie, have four sons, Anthony, who is playing college football at Kent, Dominick, a member of the Appalachian State football team, Damon and Roman, and a daughter, Olivia.

HISTORY: Defensive tackle Springfield (MA) College 1976-79. College coach: Ithaca College 1980, Western Michigan 1981, Eastern Michigan 1982, Michigan 1983, Northern Illinois 1984, Ball State 1985-86, Navy 1987-89, Indiana State 1990-91, Colorado State 1992-94, Kentucky 1995-96, Memphis 1997-98, Boston College 1999-2002. Pro coach: Joined Panthers in 2003.

Sam MILLS III

defensive quality control

College:	Montclair State
Birthdate:	5/20/78
NFL:	5th Season
Panthers:	5th Season

COACHING: For Sam Mills his day does not end when the game ends. As defensive quality control coach, Mills immediately seizes a play-by-play and starts charting what happened in every situation for the Carolina defense. It is an assignment that requires great discipline after highs and lows of a Sunday afternoon, and is a reason Mills is making a name of his own as a hard working member of the Panthers coaching staff.

Beginning in a dual capacity as strength and conditioning and defensive assistant in 2005, Mills was promoted to defensive quality control coach in 2006. While Mills may be in the process of working his way up the Carolina coaching staff hierarchy, he is no stranger to the Panthers organization. His father is the only Panthers player to have his number retired and remains the only player inducted into the team's Hall of Honor.

Now in addition to many of the responsibilities of his original position when he aided defensive assistant Mike Gillhamer and defensive coordinator Mike Trgovac, Mills has added the responsibility of working with defensive line coach Sal Sunseri.

As a defensive assistant, he oversees tape breakdown for statistical tendencies, assists in game plan preparation as well as the planning and production of the defensive play book. Mills is also responsible for all defensive meeting notes as well as getting the defensive cards ready for practice and coordinating the practice schedule with Trgovac and head coach John Fox. On game day Mills charts all plays for the defense in the coaching booth to help determine game tendencies. His duties also include implementing the game weekend itinerary in the players game plan book.

Becoming a member of the coaching staff is a culmination of his path as a youth. When his father was playing for the Panthers, Mills worked as a ball boy at training camp and later worked with equipment manager Jackie Miles before joining the strength and conditioning program.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Mills followed his father's football footsteps when he played at Montclair State College in Montclair, NJ. The elder Mills had been a NCAA Division II All-America at the school as a linebacker. Mills started 20 games in two seasons at defensive back for the Red Hawks. He totaled 71 tackles, two interceptions, one fumble recovery, three forced fumbles and 14 passes defensed. Mills' younger brother Marcus is a graduate assistant coach at Penn State. Mills is single and lives in Charlotte.

HISTORY: Defensive Back Montclair State 1997-1999. Pro coach: Joined Panthers in 2005.

Ron MILUS

secondary

College:..... Washington
Birthdate:.....11/25/63
NFL: .....10th Season
Panthers:..... 1st Season

COACHING: Ron Milus brings nearly a decade of NFL coaching experience to the Panthers, developing his craft by tutoring the secondaries for St. Louis, the New York Giants, Arizona and Denver during the last nine seasons.

Milus spent the last three years working with the secondary for St. Louis. He was promoted to secondary coach in 2008 from assistant secondary coach, a position he held from 2006-07. In 2007, the Rams defensive backs collected 16 interceptions, the most by the team's secondary in 10 years.

He came to St. Louis after two seasons as secondary coach for the New York Giants. The Giants' pass defense improved significantly in Milus' first year with the team in 2004, allowing 189.4 yards per game – the eighth best figure in the NFL.

Milus served as the Arizona Cardinals defensive backs coach in 2003. Under his direction, safety Dexter Jackson tied for fourth in the NFC with six interceptions.

He began his NFL coaching career with Denver in 2000, working as the defensive backs coach for two seasons before coaching the nickel backs in 2002. In Milus' first year with the Broncos, the secondary accounted for 21 of the team's 27 interceptions, the club's highest total since 1987. In 2001, he helped cornerback Deltha O'Neal earn a Pro Bowl berth following a nine-interception season.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Milus spent nine seasons on the college level, including 1999 as the defensive backs coach at Texas A&M. That came after an eight-year stint from 1991-98 at Washington, the last seven as defensive backs coach. Milus' 1993 unit helped the Huskies lead the nation with 22 interceptions, while his 1995 group ranked first in the Pac-10 Conference with 16 picks.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Milus played cornerback and was a return specialist at the University of Washington from 1982-85 and ranks in the school's top 10 in punt return average. A native of Tacoma, WA, he and his wife, Sandra, have two sons, Ryan and Bobby. Last name is pronounced MY-luss.

HISTORY: Cornerback Washington 1982-85. College coach: Washington 1991-98, Texas A&M 1999. Pro coach: Denver Broncos 2000-02, Arizona Cardinals 2003, New York Giants 2004-05, St. Louis Rams 2006-08, joined Panthers in 2009.

Jeff RODGERS
special teams assistant

College:	North Texas
Birthdate:	1/12/78
NFL:	6th Season
Panthers:	1st Season

COACHING: Jeff Rodgers returns to the NFL in 2009 as Carolina's special teams and strength and conditioning assistant, where he works closely with special teams coordinator Danny Crossman and strength and conditioning coach Jerry Simmons. He spent 2008 as the special teams coordinator at Kansas State after working with the San Francisco 49ers special teams for five years.

In his only season with Kansas State, Rodgers elevated the special teams units to among the nation's best. The Wildcats led the country in blocked kicks with a school-record nine, blocked punts with four and kickoff coverage with an opponents' average drive start of the 21.9-yard line. Kansas State also scored six special teams touchdowns, including five on punt returns. Additionally, Rodgers coached two players who earned All-Big 12 honorable mention: kick/punt returner Brandon Banks and kicker Brooks Rossman.

Rodgers previously gained NFL experience with San Francisco from 2003-2007, serving as the special teams quality control coach for two seasons before being promoted to assistant special teams coach in 2005. In 2007, he helped Pro Bowl punter Andy Lee finish first in the NFC and second in the NFL in net punting with an average of 41.0 yards and set a league record with 42 punts inside the 20. The 49ers also ranked first in the NFL in kickoff coverage with an opponents' average drive start of the 24.9-yard line.

During the 2005 season, kicker Joe Nedney established a team record with a 92.9 percent field-goal percentage, converting 26-of-28 field-goal attempts, while San Francisco's kickoff coverage unit stood third in the league. Long snapper Brian Jennings was named to the Pro Bowl in 2004, and in Rodgers' first year with the 49ers, they led the NFL with five special teams take-aways.

He broke into coaching at the University of Arizona as a graduate assistant on defense, assisting with the secondary in 2001 and flex linebackers in 2002.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Rodgers played linebacker at North Texas, where he earned his degree in business, specializing in entrepreneurship and strategic management. He attended Westlake HS in Austin, TX, but was born in St. Paul, MN.

HISTORY: Linebacker North Texas 1996-99. College coach: Arizona 2001-02, Kansas State 2008. Pro coach: San Francisco 49ers 2003-07, joined Panthers in 2009.

Rip SCHERER
quarterbacks

College:..... William & Mary
Birthdate:.....8/3/52
NFL: ..... 5th Season
Panthers:..... 1st Season

COACHING: Rip Scherer was named the Panthers quarterbacks coach on January 22, 2009 following four seasons as an NFL assistant and more than 30 years as a college coach.

Scherer spent the previous four seasons with Cleveland, serving as quarterbacks coach from 2005-2006 before adding assistant head coach to his responsibilities from 2007-2008. With the Browns, he directed the development of the young corps of signal callers that included Derek Anderson and Brady Quinn. In 2007, Scherer helped Anderson get selected to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 3,787 yards and 29 touchdowns and worked with an offense that ranked eighth in the NFL in scoring and yards per game.

He entered the NFL coaching ranks with more than 30 years of experience on the college level. Prior to joining Cleveland, Scherer spent two seasons from 2003-04 at Southern Mississippi as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and the 2001 season at Kansas as co-offensive coordinator.

During Scherer's tenure as head coach at Memphis from 1995-2000, the Tigers registered their first and only victory over Tennessee in school history. He was the head coach at James Madison from 1991-94, and during that time the Dukes set or tied more than 140 school records.

Scherer was also the offensive coordinator at Arizona from 1989-90, Alabama in 1987 and Georgia Tech in 1986 after serving as the Yellow Jackets quarterbacks coach/passing game coordinator from 1980-81 and running backs coach/run game coordinator from 1982-84. Additionally, he worked as assistant athletic director at Georgia Tech in 1985 and director of football operations at Arizona in 1988.

He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State in 1974 and went on to coach quarterbacks at North Carolina State in 1976, running backs at Hawaii from 1977-78 and quarterbacks at Virginia in 1979.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Scherer was a three-year letterman at William & Mary from 1970-73, where he played quarterback. He and his wife, Michele, have three children: Scott, Melanie and Ryan.

HISTORY: Quarterback: William & Mary 1970-73. College coach: Penn State 1974-75, North Carolina State 1976, Hawaii 1977-78, Virginia 1979, Georgia Tech 1980-86, Alabama 1987, Arizona 1988-90, James Madison 1991-94 (head coach), Memphis 1995-2000 (head coach), Kansas 2001, Southern Mississippi 2003-04. Pro coach: Cleveland Browns 2005-2008, joined Panthers in 2009.

Jerry SIMMONS
strength and conditioning

College:..... Fort Hays State
Birthdate:.....6/15/54
NFL: ..... 22nd Season
Panthers:..... 11th Season

COACHING: When players think of tough love, strength and conditioning coach Jerry Simmons is at the forefront. His goal is to drive every player to be in the best physical shape possible and they know he will cut no corners. They also know he has their best interest at heart. Simmons has overseen the team's weight training since 1999 and the fact that the Panthers have annually have done some of their best work late in the season is a tribute to him.

Simmons has long been regarded among the best in the NFL and was recognized as the NFL's Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2003. Simmons' selection came as no surprise to the players and coaches at Bank of America Stadium. His dedication and a strong work ethic, combined with his extensive knowledge of weight training, have made him a leader in his field. A recent example of his ability to improve performance is tight end Jeff King, whose bench press improved forty pounds and vertical leap increased two inches between his first and second seasons.

Maintaining in-season conditioning is as important as developing offseason strength in today's NFL, and Simmons has proven adept in both facets. He can be found in the weight room each day at 6:00 a.m. with the first arrivals or late in the day with the last to leave. He works to make the days interesting as well as thorough, incorporating yoga, martial arts and running into his programs. For Simmons, developing speed, flexibility and conditioning is as important as power. A stickler to the daily regimen, Simmons monitors the Panthers strength and conditioning program with fervor, and players know a missed workout will not go unnoticed.

Simmons is in his 10th season with the Panthers after eight years with Cleveland/Baltimore. His goal is to maximize players' strength while maintaining flexibility and limiting their exposure to injuries. To reach that end, Simmons develops specialized and highly individualized workout routines for each player on the roster. It was that commitment and expertise that head coach John Fox saw when he arrived at Carolina, leading him to keep Simmons as a mainstay of the Panthers coaching staff. Working closely with the training staff, Simmons not only tries to help prevent injuries with his conditioning program, he plays an integral role in getting players back on the field when injuries occur.

Starting with New England in 1988, Simmons has studied weight training trends in the NFL for 20 years. He spent three seasons with the Patriots before moving to Cleveland in 1991. Simmons began his coaching career at his alma mater, Fort Hays State, in 1978, doubling as a graduate assistant working with linebackers and the school's assistant strength coach before being elevated to head strength coach in 1979. Simmons became the graduate assistant strength coach at Clemson in 1980 and the strength and conditioning coach at Rice from 1980-82 before moving to the University of Southern California from 1983-87. In 1984, Simmons also worked as a strength training site director at the Summer Olympics in Los Angeles.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Simmons played linebacker at Fort Hays State (KS), where he earned a 1977 bachelor's degree in physical education and a 1978 master's degree in secondary school administration and physical education. He began his college playing career at Garden City (KS) Junior College. Born June 15, 1954, Simmons is a native of Elkhart, KS, and a graduate of Elkhart HS, earning All-State honors in football as a senior. Simmons and his wife, Rebecca, have two sons, Joseph and Jordon, and a daughter, Jennifer, and live in Charlotte.

HISTORY: Linebacker Garden City J.C. 1972-74, Fort Hays State 1975-76. College coach: Fort Hays State 1978, Clemson 1979, Rice 1980-82, University of Southern California 1983-87. Pro coach: New England Patriots 1988-90, Cleveland Browns/Baltimore Ravens 1991-98. Joined Panthers in 1999.

Richard SMITH
linebackers

College:.....Fresno State
Birthdate:.....10/17/55
NFL: .....22nd Season
Panthers:..... 1st Season

COACHING: Richard Smith comes to Carolina after serving as defensive coordinator for the Houston Texans for three seasons and Miami Dolphins for one year. Before that he had been a linebackers coach with the Detroit Lions, San Francisco 49ers, Denver Broncos and Houston Oilers.

While with the Texans from 2006-2008, Smith produced two Pro Bowl players in linebacker DeMeco Ryans in 2007 and defensive end Mario Williams in 2008. Last season, Ryans led the Texans from his middle linebacker spot in tackles for the third consecutive time, and Williams paced the team in sacks for the second consecutive year. Both players earned Associated Press All-Pro second-team honors in 2007.

Prior to joining the Texans, Smith spent the 2005 season as defensive coordinator with Miami, where he oversaw a defense that finished with 49 sacks, the second-most in the NFL. He went to the Dolphins following two years as Detroit's assistant head coach/linebackers from 2003-04. With the Lions, Smith guided the development of Boss Bailey, who was named to ESPN.com's all-rookie team in 2003.

During his tenure with San Francisco from 1997-2002, Smith helped four of his linebackers reach the Pro Bowl: Ken Norton, Jr. and Lee Woodall in 1997, Winfred Tubbs in 1998 and Julian Peterson in 2002. In his last two seasons with the 49ers, he transformed a young and inexperienced linebacking corps into a highly productive unit. Despite only two of the six linebackers on the roster in 2001 having more than one year of NFL experience, the group helped the team rank ninth in the league in run defense and improve to seventh the next year.

Smith entered the NFL with the Oilers in 1988 and coached special teams in addition to assisting with the tight ends, linebackers and offensive line. His special teams played a key role in Houston making the playoffs in all five of his seasons with the Oilers. From 1993-96, Smith served as the special teams coach for Denver along with working as the Broncos assistant linebackers coach his first three years.

He broke into coaching at Rio Hondo (CA) Junior College from 1979-80, overseeing the offensive line. Smith then was the defensive line coach at Cal State-Fullerton from 1981-83. He moved to California from 1984-86, where he handled outside linebackers and special teams, and served as the linebackers/special teams coach at Arizona in 1987.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Smith played offensive line at Rio Hondo (CA) Junior College from 1975-76 before transferring to Fresno State in 1977. He helped the Bulldogs win the Pacific Coast Athletic Association title in 1977 before graduating with a degree in physical education in 1979. Born in Los Angeles, Smith has four children: three daughters – Morgan, Aimee and Whitney, and a son – Travis.

HISTORY: Offensive lineman Rio Hondo (CA) Junior College 1975-76, Fresno State 1977-78. College coach: Rio Hondo (CA) Junior College 1979-80, Cal State-Fullerton 1981-83, California 1984-86, Arizona 1987. Pro coach: Houston Oilers 1988-92, Denver Broncos 1993-96, San Francisco 49ers 1997-2002, Detroit Lions 2003-04, Miami Dolphins 2005, Houston Texans 2006-08, joined Panthers in 2009.

Richard WILLIAMSON

wide receivers

College:	Alabama
Birthdate:	4/13/41
NFL:	27th Season
Panthers:	15th Season

COACHING: An original member of the Panthers coaching staff in 1995, Richard Williamson has made a career of getting the best out of his players. Some times that has come in the most difficult seasons, such as in 2007 when Steve Smith recorded 1,000 yards receiving despite playing with four different starting quarterbacks.

With relative stability at quarterback last year, Smith had reached the Pro Bowl under Williamson's tutelage for the third time in four seasons. Before Smith earned his trips to Hawaii, Williamson coached Muhsin Muhammad to Pro Bowl appearances in 1999 and 2004.

Under Williamson, Smith led the NFL in receiving yards in 2005 and tied for the League lead in receptions and touchdown catches. It was a signature season for the young receiver but just another milestone for his veteran coach. Williamson has made a habit of coaxing receivers to new heights while establishing himself as one of the best and most valuable assistants in the National Football League.

Three different Panthers head coaches have benefited from Williamson's expertise, while player after player has experienced his most productive seasons under his guidance. Smith's performance of 103 receptions for 1,563 yards in 2005 broke the marks of Muhammad, who had established club records for touchdown catches and yards receiving in 2004. Five different players - Muhammad, Smith, Patrick Jeffers, Raghib Ismail and Mark Carrier - have recorded 1,000-yard receiving seasons under Williamson. In 1999, the Panthers had two 1,000-yard receivers when Jeffers joined Muhammad among the League's receiving leaders.

Muhammad was named to the Pro Bowl in 2004 and 1999 after tying for the NFL lead with a then team-record 102 receptions. In 1998, Ismail produced career highs with 69 receptions and 1,024 receiving yards. In 1995, Mark Carrier's 1,002 receiving yards established an expansion record, while Willie Green's 882 yards were a personal career-high.

Twelve of Williamson's 14 seasons at Carolina have been spent as wide receivers coach. For most of the 2000 season and all of 2001, Williamson also served as offensive coordinator, but with the arrival of John Fox, he returned "home" to wide receivers. Described by former Panthers wide receiver Willie Green as "the best coach I have ever had," Williamson's record of success reinforces Green's belief.

Before arriving in Carolina, Williamson oversaw the development of Carl Pickens and Darnay Scott at Cincinnati. With Kansas City, he coached Stephon Paige, who set an NFL record with 305 yards receiving in a single game. At Tampa Bay, two of his players, Bruce Hill in 1988 and Carrier in 1989, were named the Buccaneers most valuable player.

Williamson joined the Panthers in 1995 from the Cincinnati Bengals, where he was receivers coach from 1992-1994. He previously coached five years at Tampa Bay, serving as receivers coach for four seasons before being elevated to head coach for the last three games of 1990 and the entire 1991 season. He entered the NFL in 1983 as a coach with Kansas City.

As a college coach, Williamson served as head coach at Memphis State from 1975-80, where he twice was named Southern Independent Conference Coach of the Year. Before his post with the Tigers, he served as an assistant at Arkansas and spent seven years as an assistant to the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama.

PLAYING AND PERSONAL: Williamson played wide receiver for Bryant's Crimson Tide in 1961 and 1962 before joining Alabama's coaching staff. A native of Fort Deposit, AL, Williamson and his wife, Norma, have two grown children, a son, Rich, and a daughter, Caroline. The Williamsons live in Charlotte.

HISTORY: Receiver Alabama 1961-62. College coach: Alabama 1963-67, 1970-71, Arkansas 1968-69, 1972-74, Memphis State 1975-80 (head coach) Pro coach: Kansas City Chiefs 1983-86, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 1987-91 (interim head coach final three games of 1990, head coach 1991), Cincinnati Bengals 1992-94. Joined Panthers in 1995.

Marty HURNEY
general manager

College:	Catholic
Birthdate:	12/20/55
NFL:	22nd Season
Panthers:	12th Season

When Marty Hurney assumed general manager duties in Carolina, the Panthers were coming off a 1-15 season. Seven years later there have been three playoff appearances, an NFC championship, two NFC South titles and two NFC championship games and a Super Bowl during that time.

Under Hurney the Panther were one of only four teams to win at least seven games over the last seven years.

With that resume it is no surprise that Forbes.com recognized Hurney among the top ten executives in professional sports in 2007. A year earlier FoxSports.com had given him the same honor.

"Hurney is a facilitator, a consensus builder, an administrator, who can pull together all manners of resources, start a very democratic process that works well, then sit with the coach and owner and come to sharp, well-reasoned decisions," writes Michael Wilbon of The Washington Post.

That ability is reflected in a multitude of ways. Hurney was instrumental in the selection of John Fox as Carolina's head coach. He has overseen the college and pro scouting departments that have seen starters drafted in seven straights seasons, beginning with Julius Peppers in 2002. Three of those players – defensive end Julius Peppers, linebacker Jon Beason, and tackle Jordan Gross – have been to the Pro Bowl.

Veteran free agent signings have included quarterback Jake Delhomme, running back Stephen Davis, wide receiver Ricky Proehl, linebacker Mark Fields and defensive tackle Damione Lewis.

The Panthers have compiled a 68-52 overall record since his appointment in 2002 after going 20-44 the previous four years, and Hurney finished second in the voting for NFL Executive of the Year in 2003.

The respect he has earned in the League was reflected in his appointment to the NFL General Managers Advisory Committee, which provides feedback to the Football Operations department headed by Ray Anderson. Areas of focus for the committee include protecting and supporting the integrity of the game, the expanded use of technology and player development and scouting opportunities.

Despite his success, Hurney is still more comfortable behind the scenes. Understated best describes his style, and as Darin Gantt of the Rock Hill Herald noted, "Hurney has shown a knack for calming the waters rather than stirring them."

It was that quality owner Jerry Richardson saw in Hurney when he promoted him to general manager. The promotion was the culmination of a 15-year NFL apprenticeship under some of the game's most astute coaches and executives, and Hurney has demonstrated that the lessons were well-learned. In addition to the on-the-field improvement, he has overseen salary cap adjustments that have left Carolina in a more positive position for the future.

Hurney joined the Panthers in 1998 from the San Diego Chargers and managed the salary cap under head coaches Dom Capers and George Seifert. As general manager, Hurney oversees the salary cap while coordinating the different areas of football operations with Fox and the team's college and pro scouting departments.

"The way we do things, everybody has a voice, and there is great communication," said Hurney. "You can find 15 people who have had a voice in a decision. That's the important thing to me."

Hurney first caught the eye of former Washington Redskins owner Jack Kent Cooke as a reporter covering the team's championship runs in the 1980s. Developing an association with Cooke, head coach Joe Gibbs and general manager Bobby Beathard, Hurney joined the Redskins public relations department in 1988. In 1990, Hurney moved with Beathard to San Diego, serving as the general manager's assistant with responsibilities that included organizing the scouting department and player contracts and overseeing the day-to-day football administration.

With the advent of the salary cap in 1993, Hurney emerged as the club's specialist in compliance management to the agreement, while earning distinction as both an administrator and negotiator, and played an integral role in San Diego's AFC Championship in 1994. Applying the lessons he has learned over the years under some of the game's most successful leaders, Hurney has become a proven leader himself.

"My role is to make sure everyone is coordinated and on the same page," Hurney said. "It's a group effort. It's communication, having a plan and doing what it takes to make sure you make all decisions with the plan in mind. If the plan and decision making are sound every step along the way, mistakes are minimized, and there is a move in the right direction."

A native of Wheaton, MD, Hurney graduated from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. and began his career as a journalist with the Montgomery Journal in Silver Spring, MD. In 1978, he moved to the Washington Star and worked on that paper for three years before going to the Washington Times, where he spent five years as a beat writer covering the Redskins. Born December 20, 1955, Marty and his wife, Jeannie, have two sons, Joe and James, and live in Charlotte.

Don GREGORY
director of college scouting

College:	Whitworth
Birthdate:	1/15/56
NFL:	13th Season
Panthers:	3rd Season

Don Gregory was named Director of College Scouting for the Panthers during the summer of 2006 and his impact is visible throughout the Carolina lineup. The Panthers top selection from Gregory's first draft, linebacker Jon Beason, has already set a team record for tackles in a season and been chosen to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Jonathan Stewart, one of two number one selections from the second draft, broke every team rushing record while the other, tackle Jeff Otah, paved the way in Carolina's record setting ground game last year.

Gregory is so diligent in his quest to uncover the best talent that he chooses to live in Dallas, where accessibility to the country's colleges is seldom more than a two-hour flight away.

Each fall and spring he sees approximately 300 players, stretching from coast-to-coast in a routine reminiscent of Groundhog Day. It's a schedule that has taken him to Las Vegas, Oregon, Washington, Auburn, Clemson, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and California in a ten-day period.

However, searching the country for talent is not something that is new to Gregory, who chose scouting over coaching following a successful college playing career.

"I made that choice largely because of a scout named Gene Bates, who had scouted me when I was in college and became my mentor," says Gregory. "I went into high school coaching for eight years after playing, and Gene was instrumental in my transition into scouting as well as my development there."

Starting with a personnel position with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, Gregory began his climb up the pro ladder. He worked with the Eskimos from 1986-1990 before going to the World League of American Football to scout the northwest for the San Antonio Riders in 1990 and 1991. Gregory returned to Edmonton in 1992 and remained there until moving to the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the CFL for two years.

Gregory moved to the National Football League in 1995 as a scout with the San Diego Chargers and remained with the team until 1999. While at San Diego, he worked with Panthers general manager Marty Hurney, who was managing the salary cap.

In 2001 a move to the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL as Director of Player Personnel took Gregory out of the NFL, but he soon returned as a member of the Kansas City Chiefs scouting department. With the Chiefs, he served as a national scout in the south and southeast for five years.

Familiar with his work ethic and dedication to his profession, Hurney tabbed Gregory a year ago to become the Panthers director of college scouting. However, Gregory chose to keep his home in Dallas rather than move to Charlotte.

"I guess I've made my name in this business by being a grinder and that involves a lot of travel," explains Gregory. "I try to set an example by being on the road myself, and it helps you understand the issues scouts experience. Dallas is pretty centrally located in the middle of the country, so I can go east or west and be pretty much any where within a few hours."

A native of Pearl City, Hawaii, Don moved to Great Falls, Montana in the sixth grade and played college football at Wenatchee Valley College in 1974 and 1975 before transferring in 1976 to Portland State, where he played in the "run and shoot" offense of coach Mouse Davis and Gregory finished his college career at Whitworth quarterback June Jones. College, where he received a bachelor's of science degree in 1979. He then coached high school football in Washington before joining the Eskimos.

Mark KONCZ

director of pro scouting

College:	Kansas
Birthdate:	12/14/66
NFL:	15th Season
Panthers:	15th Season

Mark Koncz has become an integral part of the Panthers success as Director of Pro Personnel, annually providing a steady stream of veteran talent to the team's roster. The ability of Koncz and his staff to discover available talent has paid dividends year after year, whether as an offseason acquisition or an in-season waiver wire pickup. Punter Jason Baker has developed into one of the best in the NFL. Baker joins a long list that includes Stephen Davis, Ricky Proehl, Mark Fields, Brandon Short, Rodney Peete, Brentson Buckner, Terry Cousin, Al Wallace, Mike Wahle and Chris Harris.

All of those players made valuable contributions to the Panthers while other free agent signings have become Carolina mainstays such as Jake Delhomme, who is the winningest quarterback in team history since signing in 2003.

The ability of Koncz and his staff was put to the ultimate test in the Panthers injury-plagued season of 2004. Carolina reached midseason with 14 players on injured reserve, leaving the pro personnel department with the challenge of finding replacements. Several of those late arrivals played instrumental roles in the team's second-half rally and reinforced Koncz's reputation for finding talent in a variety of ways.

Year after year, he and his staff have made recommendations that have turned out to be blue chips. In 2003 it was a trio of veteran free agent finds -- Davis, who set a club rushing record with 1,444 yards, Delhomme and Proehl, the big play wide receiver – who helped propel the Panthers to the NFC Championship and Super Bowl.

Sorting through the free agent pool to find the right fit for the Panthers is nothing new for Koncz. In 2002, five free agent finds proved vital in Carolina's rebound during head coach John Fox's first season. Peete started at quarterback for all seven victories, Lamar Smith was the team's leading rusher, Fields led the team in tackles, Cousin was a starting cornerback and Wallace provided invaluable depth at defensive end.

The team's record was not attractive in 2001, but the work of Koncz and his staff resulted in the signing of guard Kevin Donnalley and Buckner at defensive tackle, both starters on the 2003 Super Bowl team.

The pro personnel department is constantly evaluating NFL rosters in preparation for a need, and their time has been well spent. Whether waiver acquisitions such as Rod Smart or former starter Reggie Howard, high profile free agents such as Davis or unknown talents such as Delhomme, it is Koncz's job to be ready to fill a need. When an injury creates that need at a moment's notice, the pro personnel department must be ready to respond with recommendations. As a result, the department constantly pours through video during the course of a year to stay abreast of players on other teams as well as players not on NFL rosters.

Koncz has been scouring for hidden gems since 1998 when he joined the scouting department. He was named the Panthers director of pro scouting after working as the Panthers manager of football operations. In addition to his work of player evaluations throughout the NFL as well as NFL Europa, he coordinates the advance scouting of opponents.

Koncz is a 1990 graduate of the University of Kansas, where he was a three-year letterman and three-year starter for the Jayhawks, serving as team captain his senior season. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University in 1993 and joined the Panthers in July, 1994, starting in the ticket department. A native of Chicago, IL, Koncz is a graduate of Barrington HS. He and his wife, Yvette, live in Fort Mill, SC and have a daughter, Milena, and a son, Nolan.

Jeff BEATHARD
college scout

College:	Southern Oregon State
Birthdate:	6/9/64
NFL:	13th Season
Panthers:	2nd Season

Jeff joined the Panthers in 2008 as an area scout. Prior to joining the Panthers, Jeff was the Director of Player Personnel and running backs coach in 1991 for the Orlando Thunder of the World League of American Football, which was later known as NFL Europe. In 1992 he became the Director of Player Personnel and tight ends coach for the San Antonio Riders of the WLAF. Jeff began his NFL scouting career with the Los Angeles Rams in May of 1992 through 1994. He moved to the San Diego Chargers scouting department from 1994-2002 and scouted for the Hamilton Tigercats from 2003-2005.

Jeff attended Towson State University from 1983-1985, starting at running back as a sophomore and junior before transferring to Southern Oregon State College as a senior.

Jeff was the 333rd overall and final pick by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1988 draft, becoming "Mr. Irrelevant," in a year when the selection process lasted 12 rounds. He spent a season with the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers before beginning his career in football administration.

Jeff graduated from Oakton (Vienna, VA) HS, where he played football, baseball and ran track. He was All-District, Region and All-State in football and played in the Virginia all-star game as a senior. Born June 9, 1964, Jeff has three children, Kylee, Jeffrey, Jr. and Jake, and lives in Catlett, Virginia.

Ryan COWDEN

- AMONG PANTHERS ALL-TIME LEADERS: Ranks first in team history with 2,348 pass attempts, 1,402 completions, 17,243 passing yards, 112 touchdown passes and nine 300-yard passing games...59.71 completion percentage ranks second behind Steve Beuerlein, who accumulated a 60.41 completion percentage from 1996-2000.
- GAMES PLAYED: Franchise leader among quarterbacks with 79 regular season starts.... Established team record for consecutive starts by a quarterback with 59, the fourth-longest active streak among quarterbacks at the time...Streak ended versus the New York Giants (12/10/06) when he was inactive with an injured right thumb.
- REGULAR SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Only quarterback in team history to start five consecutive season openers...First quarterback in club history to appear in six consecutive season openers after starting in 2008, 2007, 2006, 2005, 2004 and relieving Rodney Peete to begin the second half of the 2003 opener.
- Has engineered 18 career game-winning drives (including the playoffs) that put Carolina ahead for good in the fourth quarter or overtime...Includes 12 game-winning drives in final two minutes or overtime.
- Established a team single-game record and career-high with an 85.19 completion percentage on 23-of-27 passing at New Orleans (12/31/06), bettering his previous team mark of 82.86 completion percentage on 29-of-35 passing versus Detroit (12/21/03).
- 61.02 completion percentage in 2006 stands as second-highest single-season mark in team history behind Beuerlein's 62.97 mark in 1998.
- 12 victories in 2008 surpasses 11 victories in 2005 as the most ever by a Carolina starting quarterback.
- Only player in team history to pass for more than 3,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, accomplishing the feat from 2003-2005.
- Passed for 3,886 yards and 29 touchdowns in 2004, the second-highest single-season totals in team history.
- Established career-highs with a 143.4 quarterback rating and four touchdown passes on 19-of-24 passing for 214 yards at Tampa Bay (12/26/04).
- Since the inception of free agency in 1993, is the second unrestricted free agent quarterback to take his team to a conference championship and Super Bowl in his first season with the club, joining Trent Dilfer, who guided the Baltimore Ravens to Super Bowl XXXV in 2000.

Vs. Detroit (12/21): Established team record with an 82.86 completion percentage on 29-of-35 passing for 260 yards and two touchdowns with one interception for a 104.8 quarterback rating... Completion percentage bettered the previous team mark of 80.77 set by Steve Beuerlein at St. Louis (11/22/98)...Completed 15-of-16 passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns with one interception during the first half while directing Carolina to a 17-0 lead.

NFC Wild Card vs. Dallas (1/3): Started and appeared in first playoff game...Completed 18-of-29 passes for 273 yards and one touchdown for a 104.5 passer rating...Included was 70-yard completion to Steve Smith that set up team's first score...104.5 quarterback rating was the best by a quarterback in the playoffs against the NFL's top-ranked defense since 1996 when Brett Favre posted a 132.9 rating for Green Bay versus San Francisco (01/06/96)...380 yards of total offense against the Cowboys defensive unit were also the most in the playoffs against a defense that ended the season ranked first in the NFL since San Francisco amassed 415 yards against the Cowboys top-ranked unit (01/17/93)...Part of a team effort in which Carolina did not commit a turnover or a penalty, marking the first time since the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl X (01/18/76) that a team played a postseason game without committing a turnover or a penalty...Smith registered 135 yards and a touchdown on five catches, Muhammad produced 103 yards on four catches and Davis rushed for 104 yards and touchdown on 26 carries, marking the first time since 1991 that a team had two 100-yard receivers and a 100-yard rusher in the same game during the postseason (Buffalo's Andre Reed registered 122 yards receiving, James Lofton produced 149 yards receiving and running back Thurman Thomas rushed for 117 yards for Buffalo versus Miami on 01/12/91).

NFC Divisional Playoffs at St. Louis (1/10): Completed 16-of-26 passes for 290 yards and one touchdown with one interception in dramatic double-overtime victory that ranks as the fifth-longest game in NFL history at 1:15:10...Victory came as result of Delhomme's eighth game-winning drive of the season that produced the decisive points in the final two minutes of regulation or overtime...Threw game-winning 69-yard touchdown to Steve Smith, which capped an overtime that saw him complete five-of-eight passes for 136 yards and one touchdown with no interceptions for a quarterback rating of 145.8 after regulation ended...69-yard scoring pass stands as the longest play to end a playoff game in League history...Game marked first overtime victory in team history in which the deciding points were scored on a touchdown instead of a John Kasay field goal...Improved team's all-time record to 5-6 in overtime contests...Directed offense that generated 485 total net yards, the most totalled in team history for a postseason or regular season contest, bettering the previous high of 483 yards achieved at Washington (10/3/99)...Enabled Carolina to become only the third team since 1990 to win an NFC Divisional Playoff game on the road... Previously, Green Bay defeated the 49ers 27-17 at San Francisco (01/06/95) and Philadelphia defeated the Bears 33-19 at Chicago (01/19/01) ...Including 2003 season, home team owns a 25-3 record in NFC Divisional Playoff games.

NFC Championship at Philadelphia (1/18): Completed nine-of-14 passes for 101 yards and one touchdown for a 109.5 passer rating... Directed offense to its second turnover-free game of the postseason, matching the unit's effort versus Dallas (1/3/04)...Performance increased passer rating to 102.6 after his first three career postseason starts, the highest by a quarterback since 1991-92 when Dallas' Troy Aikman posted a 105.2 passer rating after his first three career postseason starts...Victory allowed Delhomme to become the second unrestricted free agent to take his team to a conference championship game and Super Bowl in his first season with the club since the inception of free agency in 1993, joining Trent Dilfer, who guided the Baltimore Ravens to the Super Bowl in 2000.

Super Bowl XXXVIII vs. New England (2/1): Finished game with 323 yards and three touchdowns on 16-of-33 passing with no interceptions for 113.6 passer rating...Overcame first quarter in which he completed one-of-six passes for one yard...Completed nine-of-14 passes for 211 yards and two touchdowns during a dramatic fourth quarter…Included in fourth quarter totals was 85-yard touchdown pass to Muhsin Muhammad, the longest offensive play in Super Bowl history…Scoring throw surpassed previous long 81-yard touchdown from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman for Green Bay versus Denver in Super Bowl XXXI… With Carolina trailing 29-22 and 2:51 remaining in the game, Delhomme completed five-of-six passes for 73 yards during drive that ended with 12-yard touchdown to Ricky Proehl with 1:08 remaining to tie the contest…Led 95-yard scoring drive in second quarter that resulted in 39-yard touchdown to Smith…Length of drive matched second-longest in Super Bowl history, equalling drive of Green Bay in Super Bowl XXXII against Denver, and was one yard shy of 96-yard drive generated by Chicago versus New England in Super Bowl XX… Passer rating of 113.6 ranked as the highest for a quarterback starting his first Super Bowl since San Francisco's Steve Young posted a passer rating of 134.8 in 1995 during Super Bowl XXIX… Young's performance also marked the last time a quarterback has had a quarterback rating higher than Delhomme's in any Super Bowl.

2002: Saints reserve quarterback behind Aaron Brooks…Played in four games…Dressed but did not play in 12 contests…Completed eight-of-10 passes for 113 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions en route to a 113.8 quarterback rating and lost two yards on four rushing attempts… Led all NFC quarterbacks for the second consecutive preseason with a 110.6 quarterback rating, completing 68.8 percent of his attempts on 33-of-48 passing for 370 yards and four touchdowns with one interception…Rushed for 20 yards and a touchdown on five carries…At Tampa Bay (9/8): Served as the holder on extra points and field goals…At Carolina (11/10): Did not complete his only pass attempt on the last play of the first half…Vs. Tampa Bay (12/1): Replaced an injured Brooks on the final series in a win over Buccaneers… Entered contest with the Saints clinging to a 23-20 lead and facing a third-and-eight with less than two minutes remaining…Completed his only pass attempt for 10 yards to gain a first down before taking a knee on the next two plays to end the game…At Baltimore (12/8): Saw his most extensive action of the season when he relieved Brooks in the third quarter… Connected on seven-of-eight passes for 108 yards, including 54-yard completion to Jake Reed…Directed the Saints on three scoring drives.

2001: Saints inactive third quarterback for all 16 games…Completed 36-of-52 passes, a 69.2 completion percentage, for 437 yards and four touchdowns with one interception to compile a 112.4 passer rating…Led NFC in passer rating during preseason…Rushed twice for 11 yards.

2000: Listed as New Orleans' inactive third quarterback for the first 11 games…Dressed but did not play in the last five regular season contests and in the Saints two playoff contests. Completed 65.5 percent of his attempts of 36-of-55 passing for 381 yards and three touchdowns with three interceptions for a 80.9 passer rating during the preseason that led all Saints quarterbacks…Gained 23 yards on two rushing attempts.

1999: Played in two games with two starts for New Orleans… Third quarterback for two contests and inactive for two games…Completed 42-of-76 passes for 521 yards and three touchdowns with five interceptions to compile a 62.4 passer rating…Rushed 11 times for 72 yards and two touchdowns…Completed 17-of-44 passes for 202 yards with no touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 53.4 during the preseason…Rushed six times for 24 yards…Waived by New Orleans prior to the start of the regular season (9/5)… Re-signed as a free agent by the Saints (11/23)…Listed as the third quarterback at St. Louis (11/28) and at Atlanta (12/5)…Inactive versus St. Louis (12/12) and at Baltimore (12/19)…Vs. Dallas (12/24): Started and led New Orleans to a win in his first NFL contest…Completed 16-of-27 attempts for 278 yards and two touchdowns with one interception and scored on a four-yard touchdown run…At Carolina (1/2): Started the regular season finale…Attempted a team season-high 49 passes, completing 26 for 243 yards and one touchdown with four interceptions…Led Saints with 78 yards rushing and one touchdown on eight carries.

1999 NFLE: Allocated to the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe by New Orleans…Led Galaxy to a World Bowl Championship and ranked second in the League with a 96.8 passer rating…Completed 67.3 of his pass attempts on 136-of-202 passing for 1,410 yards and 12 touchdowns with five interceptions…Added 21 rushes for 126 yards…Recorded one of the four 300-yard passing games registered in the League during the 1999 campaign, throwing for 316 yards on 30 completions against the Rhein Fire…Completed nine-of-14 passes for 126 yards and one touchdown against the Barcelona Dragons in the World Bowl.

1998: Served as the Saints inactive third quarterback for the first five games of the season before being waived (10/14) and signed to the team's practice squad (10/15) where he spent the remainder of the campaign….Completed 13-of-31 passes for 164 yards and one touchdown with two interceptions and rushed five times for 45 yards during the preseason.

1998 NFLE: Allocated by New Orleans to the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe… Completed 15-of-47 attempts for 247 yards and no touchdowns with four interceptions as a reserve quarterback behind quarterback Kurt Warner.

1997: Originally signed by New Orleans as an undrafted rookie free agent (6/10)… Waived during the preseason (8/18)…Signed to the practice squad (11/19), where he spent the remainder of the season.

COLLEGE: Ended his college career at Louisiana-Lafayette as the all-time Louisiana college passing leader with 9,216 yards on 655-of-1,246 passing with 64 touchdowns and 57 interceptions….Led the Ragin' Cajuns to three consecutive winning seasons in his four years…Became first player to pass for more than 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons… Started the last 43 games of his career, which was the longest streak among active quarterbacks in the nation….Ranked 22nd in NCAA history for passing yards and 28th for total offense at close of his career…1996 (Sr.): Completed 201-of-377 passes for a school-record 2,901 yards and 20 touchdowns with 17 interceptions…1995 (Jr.): Earned second-team All-Louisiana honors after completing 190-of-351 passes for 2,761 yards and 20 touchdowns with 10 interceptions…Totals included a school-record 371 yards passing against Louisiana Tech…1994 (So.): Connected on 119-of-259 passes for 1,712 yards and 10 touchdowns with 18 interceptions…1993 (Fr.): Started final 10 games of the season and completed 145-of-259 passes for 1,842 yards and 14 touchdowns with 12 interceptions…Only true freshman quarterback to start for a Division I-A school in 1993, and 124.5 passer efficiency rating ranked second among NCAA freshman quarterbacks…First true freshman in school history to pass for more than 1,000 yards, setting a single-season school mark for completions that he would later surpass.

PRO CAREER

- AMONG PANTHERS ALL-TIME LEADERS: Twenty career interceptions are second to Eric Davis in team history...228 career interception return yards tied with Davis for second in team history behind Mike Minter....77 career regular season starts second only to Davis (78) in team history at cornerback position.
- PANTHERS TEAM RECORDS: 157 interception return yards in 2005 set team single-season record, surpassing the previous mark of 143 by Julius Peppers in 2004. Seven interceptions (2005) rank as the second-highest single-season total in team history behind the eight recorded by Doug Evans in 2001.
- Recorded his 10th career interception in his 24th regular-season game, versus the New York Jets (11/13/05), the fastest a player has reached that mark since cornerback Anthony Henry notched his 10th career interception in his 16th career game while with Cleveland in 2001.
- Team leader in interceptions in 2004 and 2005, becoming second player in team history to be sole interceptions leader in consecutive seasons, joining Eric Davis who accomplished feat from 1997-2000.
- Produced his first career interception return for a touchdown with 61-yard return at Tampa Bay (11/6/05) off quarterback Chris Simms and equaled his personal best with two interceptions , previously accomplished at Atlanta (12/18/04).
- Interception against New Orleans (12/18/05) made him the first player in team history to record at least six interceptions per season more than once after he notched six as a rookie in 2004.

- 2004 performance made him first rookie defensive player in team history to start all 16 games.
- Tied teammate Ken Lucas for the NFC lead with six interceptions in 2004.
- Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie choice in 2004 after he established a team rookie record with six interceptions.
- First rookie in team history to be Carolina's sole interception leader. Ricky Manning, Jr. tied for the team lead as a rookie in 2003.
- Started every game on 2004 Panthers defense that led the NFL with a team-record 26 interceptions and ranked second in the League with 38 take-aways, a total that tied the team mark.

- AMONG PANTHERS ALL-TIME LEADERS: Starter in 95-of-96 regular season contests and all eight postseason games since being drafted in the first round by Carolina in 2003…95 starts are most by an offensive lineman in team history and seventh most among all positions…84 consecutive games started from 2003 to Week Five of 2009 rank second only to Mike Minter's team record of 91 consecutive starts.

* Named as starter for the NFC in the Pro Bowl and first team All-NFL by the Associated Press in 2008 after starting 15 games at left tackle.

- Helped Carolina rush for a team-record 2,437 yards in 2008 and set a single-season record for fewest sacks allowed with 20 despite using six different line combinations.
- Made the transition back to left tackle in 2008 after playing at right tackle in 2007 and left tackle for 15 games in 2006 after Travelle Wharton suffered a season-ending injury in Week One. Started all 16 games at right tackle in 2005, the position where he started as a rookie in 2003, after spending 2004 at left tackle.
- Anchored Panthers running attack that ranked third in the NFL in rushing with an average of 152.3 yards a game, the team's highest finish ever in that category.
- Aided Panthers in recording a team-record 299 yards rushing versus Tampa Bay (12/8/08), an average of 8.1 yards per carry.
- Key contributor to rushing attack that produced 229 yards at Atlanta (1/1/05) in the regular season finale and 223 yards at New York in the NFC Wild Card game (1/8/05). Efforts marked the first time in team history that the Panthers rushed for more than 200 yards in consecutive games.
- Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie and Sports Illustrated All-Pro after starting all 16 games at right tackle in 2003.
- Lone rookie starter on offensive line that yielded only 27 sacks and rushed for 2,091 yards in 2003.

TRANSACTIONS: Signed to contract extension by Carolina (2/18/09)… Designated as franchise player by Carolina (2/20/08)…Selected by Carolina in the first round (8th overall pick) in 2003 NFL Draft (4/26/03).

PRO CAREER

- NFL CAREER: One of best kickers in NFL history…Ranks 11th in NFL history for points scored with 1,634…386 field goals rank seventh in League history…36 field goals made beyond 50-yards stand fourth all-time in NFL behind Jason Hanson's 41, Morten Andersen's 40 and Jason Elam's 38…Ranks fifth in points and field goals made among active kickers.
- PANTHERS TEAM RECORDS: Career: games played (189), points (1,293), field goal attempts (368), field goals (304), extra point attempts (389), extra points (381) and most consecutive games played (96).

  Single season: points (145, 1996), extra point attempts (46, 2008), extra points (46, 2008), most extra points with no misses (46, 2008), field goal attempts (45, 1996), field goals (37, 1996), most 50+ yard field goals (4, '98, 2006).

  Single-game: field goal attempts (6), most field goals (6), most field goals without a miss (6), longest field goal attempted (65), longest field goal (56), most field goals of 50 or more yards (2).

  Consecutive streaks: most field goals (22), most extra points (133), most games with field goals (15).

* Only player remaining from the Panthers inaugural 1995 team and the only player to appear in all 10 of the franchise's postseason games.

- NFL RECORDS: Became the first kicker in League history to convert four field goals of 46 yards or longer in one game at Tampa Bay (9/24/06).
- 1,000 Point Club: Became the 25th player in NFL history to score 1,000 points with the same team in 2006.
- Equaled personal best with four field goals of 50 yards or longer in 2006, previously accomplished in 1998 when he kicked a career long 56-yarder versus Green Bay (9/27/06).
- Responsible for 12 game-winning field goals during his career, including 10 with the Panthers.
- Since joining the Panthers in 1995, is one of two NFL kickers who still remains with the same team, along with Jason Hanson of Detroit.
- Panthers leading scorer in every season in team history except for 2000, 2002 and 2004. He spent the majority of the 2000 and 2002 campaigns on injured reserve.
- Field goals of 51 and 52 yards versus New England (9/18/05) and 52 yards at Miami (9/25/05) made him the second kicker since 1995 to attempt three consecutive field goals from 50 yards or longer and convert all of them. Neil Rackers accomplished the feat for Arizona versus Seattle (10/24/04).

- Established career high and team record with six field goals and 20 points at New Orleans (12/5/04).
- Tied an NFL postseason record versus Dallas (1/4/03) in the NFC Wild Card game when he became the fifth player in League history to convert five field goals in a playoff game.
- Successful on 304-of-368 field goals for an 82.6 percent accuracy rate since signing with the Panthers as an unrestricted free agent in 1995.
- Excluding 2000 season that he missed with injury and an abbreviated 2002 season when he was two-of-five on field goals before going on injured reserve with a sports hernia, has converted 198 of his last 233 field goal attempts since 1999, an 84.9 percent conversion rate.
- Panthers are 11-1 in games in which he has kicked four or more field goals.
- 37 field goals in 1996 set an NFL single-season record (since broken) that still ranks fourth in League history.
- 145 points in 1996 led the NFL and are the third-most points in a season by a kicker in League history.
- Selected to Pro Bowl in 1996 and earned first-team All-Pro honors from UPI, second team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press and Football Digest and All-NFC honors from Football News.
- With five-for-five field goal games versus Atlanta (9/1/96) and at New Orleans (9/8/96), became the second kicker in NFL history to go 10-for-10 for two games (Carney, SD, 1994).

receiving yards with a touchdown...At Oakland (12/24): Posted 13th career 100-yard receiving game in the season finale with 114 yards on 10 catches, both team-highs.

1999: Starter in 15 games and inactive for one contest... after posting career-highs and team season records with 96 catches for 1,253 yards...Led NFC in receptions and ranked fourth in receiving yards...Bettered Raghib Ismail's team marks of 69 receptions and 1,024 receiving yards established in 1998.....Recorded five 100-yard receiving outings en route to teaming with Patrick Jeffers to give Carolina its first pair of receivers in team history to each surpass the 1,000 receiving yard plateau in the same season...Produced a career-high eight touchdown catches and led or tied for the team lead in receptions in nine contests...Inactive with an injured left hamstring versus Atlanta (11/28)...PRO BOWL: Selected to his first Pro Bowl...Vs. Jacksonville (9/19): Totalled 103 receiving yards on four receptions, including a season-long 60-yard scoring catch...Vs. Cincinnati (9/26): Followed 117 receiving yards on a game-high eight catches marking the first time in team history a player recorded consecutive 100-yard receiving outings...At Washington (10/3): Registered third consecutive 100-yard receiving game with a game-high 151 receiving yards on eight catches...Sixth career 100-yard receiving contest, enabling him to surpass Mark Carrier as all-time team leader...At San Francisco (10/17): Tied for the team lead with six catches for 96 yards with a 22-yard touchdown, all in the first half, before being slowed in the second half with a bruised right thigh...At St. Louis (11/14): Produced a game-high nine catches for 125 yards...At Cleveland (11/21): Team-high seven catches for 72 yards, enabling him to become Carolina's all-time leader in receiving yards and move past Mark Carrier into second place on the all-time receptions list... Vs. San Francisco (12/18): Established team single game marks with 11 catches and three touchdowns while totalling 126 receiving yards...Scored on receptions of eight, 14 and seven yards...Joined Jeffers, who tallied 138 receiving yards, to become the second receiving duo in team history to post 100-yard receiving efforts in the same game, joining Carrier and Willie Green who registered 132 and 105 receiving yards respectively at New Orleans (11/26/95).

1998: Started a career-high 16 games...Ranked second on the team with 68 catches, 941 receiving yards and six touchdown receptions...Tallied three 100-yard receiving efforts... Career-long 72-yard touchdown reception at Atlanta (10/4) was the Panthers longest offensive scoring play of the season... Slowed by a strained left hamstring in the season's final two contests...At New Orleans (9/13): Established a career-high and team mark with 192 receiving yards on nine receptions including a 17-yard touchdown reception...192 receiving yards matched the league-high for Week 2 of the season...At Atlanta (10/4): Tied for the team lead with four receptions for a team-high 104 yards, including a 72-yard touchdown catch...Score marked his third consecutive game with a touchdown, establishing a team record...Vs. Washington (12/13): Recorded a team-best seven receptions for 118 yards in addition to a two-point conversion reception...Vs. St. Louis (12/20): Notched two catches for 22 yards including a three-yard touchdown before leaving the game in the second half... At Indianapolis (12/27): Limited to first-half action, marking his only game of the season without a reception...Ending a streak of 19 consecutive games with a catch.

1997: Saw action in 13 contests with five starts...Totaled 27 catches for 317 yards to post an 11.7 yard average per catch...Notched four special teams tackles...Inactive versus Kansas City (9/21), versus San Francisco (9/29) and at Minnesota (10/12) with a broken left wrist... At San Diego (9/14): Led the team with four catches for 43 yards in a start before breaking his left wrist in the fourth quarter and undergoing surgery (9/16).

1996: Appeared in nine games, starting five, and played in both playoff contests... Averaged 16.3 yards per catch on 25 receptions for 407 yards and a touchdown...Inactive versus Atlanta (9/1) with an injured shoulder suffered during the preseason...Sustained a pulled hamstring in practice that caused him to be inactive for the next six games...

POSTSEASON: Played in both Panthers playoff contests but did not record a reception... At New Orleans (9/8): Made his professional debut and responded with a team-high and season-high six receptions for 96 yards, all in the second half...At Jacksonville (9/29): Recorded his first NFL start and matched his season high of 96 yards on five catches...Vs. St. Louis (10/13): Only catch went 54 yards for a touchdown, the team's longest scoring play of the season.

COLLEGE: Played in 36 games with 12 starts…Amassed 69 receptions for 1,147 yards and five touchdowns, including a 78-yard touchdown.

tackle

6-4 • 320 • South Carolina

Birthdate: 5/19/81
Hometown: Fountain Inn, SC
High School: Hillcrest
NFL: 6th Season
Panthers: 6th Season
How Acquired: D3 '04

PRO CAREER:

- Made a smooth transition from left tackle back to left guard in 2008 helping the Panthers set franchise marks for rushing yards (2,437) and fewest sacks allowed (20) in a single season.
- Helped running backs Jonathan Stewart and DeAngelo Williams rush for a combined eight 100-yard games in the second half of the season in 2008.
- Helped anchor Panthers rushing attack that ranked third in the NFL in rushing in 2008 with an average of 152.3 yards a game, the highest finish ever in that category.
- Aided Panthers in recording a team-record 299 yards rushing versus Tampa Bay (12/8/08), an average of 8.1 yards per carry.
- Started all 16 games at left tackle in 2007 after suffering a torn ACL and MCL in his left knee in the 2006 season opener versus Atlanta (9/10/07)...Contributed to an offensive unit that generated 1,824 rushing yards, the second-highest single-season total in club history behind 2,091 in 2003.
- Has started all 58 games in which he has played, including 33 at left tackle and 25 at left guard.
- Returned to his college position of left tackle in 2005 after spending his rookie season at left guard in 2004.
- Member of offensive line that allowed only 28 sacks in 2005, the second lowest total in team history.
- Key contributor to rushing attack that generated a team-record 229 yards rushing at Atlanta (1/1/05) in the regular season finale and 223 yards rushing at the New York Giants (1/8/05) in the NFC Wild Card game. Efforts marked the first time in team history that Carolina rushed for more than 200 yards in consecutive games and enabled the Panthers to join Atlanta as the only teams to generate consecutive games with 200 or more yards rushing during the 2005 season.
- Started final 11 games at left guard in 2004 after being inactive for the first five contests. Entered the lineup after starting guard Tutan Reyes suffered an injured left ankle at Philadelphia (10/17/04).
- Lone rookie starter on offensive line that yielded only 33 sacks in 2004, the fourth lowest total in team history.
- Opened running lanes for Nick Goings to rush for five 100-yard games in eight starts, tying Anthony Johnson with five in 1996 and behind Stephen Davis who totaled seven in 2003.
- One of four rookie draft choices to start a game in 2004 (Chris Gamble, Keary Colbert, Michael Gaines).

1 Carolina 26, San Diego 24

September 7, 2008 - Qualcomm Stadium - San Diego

Jake Delhomme's 14-yard touchdown strike to Dante Rosario with time expiring capped a 68-yard drive to give the Panthers a 26-24 win over San Diego. Carolina held a 9-7 halftime lead on three John Kasay field goals. Kasay finished with four field goals on the game, the longest coming from 49 yards out. The Carolina ground attack put up 142 yards, including 112 in the first half, as the Panthers outgained the Chargers 388-316 for the game. DeAngelo Williams recorded 86 yards on 18 carries in just his third -career start. Rookie Jonathan Stewart added 53 yards in his first NFL game . The Panthers scored their first touchdown of the season on a forced fumble by Chris Harris and 31-yard touchdown return by Chris Gamble in the third quarter. However, the Chargers responded with two fourth quarter touchdowns to take a 24-19 lead with 2:24 left. Delhomme came back to hit five different Panthers receivers on the game-winning drive. Rosario, who only caught six passes in his rookie season in 2007, finished the game with seven catches for 96 yards and the game-winning touchdown. Delhomme, starting in his first game since having Tommy John surgery in October of 2007, completed 23-of-41 attempts for 247 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions for a passer rating of 82.1. Harris led the defensive effort with 10 tackles and one forced fumble, while Na'il Diggs had 10 tackles and a sack. Head Coach John Fox won his fourth season opener and second consecutive on the road.

2 Carolina 20, Chicago 17

September 14, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

The Carolina Panthers overcame a 17-3 second-half deficit to come back and defeat the Chicago Bears 20-17 in the home opener. Rookie Jonathan Stewart rushed for 77 yards, including 76 in the second half. Stewart scored two touchdowns, including the go-ahead score with 3:52 remaining. The scores were the first touchdowns of Stewart's career. Playing against his former team, Muhsin Muhammad had five receptions for 59 yards. His first catch of the game put him over the 10,000-yard receiving plateau for his career. The Panthers defense recovered two fumbles and held the Bears to just 108 yards in the second half. With under 2:24 remaining in the game, the defense did not surrender one yard over three straight plays to force a turnover on downs to seal the victory. For the second week in a row, Chris Harris forced a fumble that was recovered by Chris Gamble. The turnover marked the 10th forced fumble by Chris Harris in 17 games with the Panthers. Jon Beason led the defensive attack with a team-high 15 total tackles. John Kasay kicked field goals from 37 and 45 yards.

3 Minnesota 20, Carolina 10

September 21, 2008 - Metrodome - Minneapolis

Minnesota sacked quarterback Jake Delhomme five times, including one sack from Antoine Winfield that caused a fumble and subsequent recovery for the momentum-changing touchdown. Carolina started the game with great field position and John Kasay kicked a 43-yard field goal to give the Panthers an early 3-0 lead, marking the first time that Carolina had scored on its opening drive in the season. The Panthers then put together an 11-play, 69-yard scoring drive punctuated by a Jonathan Stewart touchdown for a 10-0 lead in the second quarter. Smith's 29-yard reception marked the biggest play of the drive and Carolina's longest play from scrimmage on the game. After the Vikings cut the lead to 10-3, Minnesota's Winfield sacked Carolina's Delhomme, forcing a fumble which Winfield recovered and carried 19 yards for the tying touchdown. The Vikings would go on to score 10 more points in the second half while holding Carolina to just 73 total second-half yards. Delhomme completed 17-of-29 attempts for 191 yards. DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart managed 42 yards on 17 carries, although Stewart did score his third touchdown of the season. Smith returned to the lineup and hauled in four catches for 70 yards. Chris Gamble notched his third takeaway on the season as he picked off a Gus Frerotte pass in the first quarter. Thomas Davis led the defensive effort with a team-high 11 tackles, while Julius Peppers recorded his first sack of the season.

4 Carolina 24, Atlanta 9

September 28, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

The Carolina Panthers won their first Divisional matchup of the season by beating the Atlanta Falcons, 24-9. The Panthers passing attack was efficient as Jake Delhomme posted new season highs in passing yards and touchdowns completing 20 of 29 attempts for 294 yards and two touchdown strikes with no interceptions for a passer rating of 124.8. Delhomme's 36-yard touchdown toss to Muhsin Muhammad in the fourth quarter not only sealed the win but also marked Delhomme's 100th career touchdown pass and Muhammad's 600th career reception as a Panther. Muhammad finished the day with 147 yards and a touchdown on eight catches. Steve Smith was the recipient of Delhomme's longest pass of the day, a 56-yard touchdown that put Carolina up 14-6 in the second quarter. Smith finished with 96 yards and a touchdown on six receptions. The Panthers outgained the Falcons 294-150 through the air and held a sizable advantage in total yards, 401-268. Jonathan Stewart and DeAngelo Williams both rushed for over 50 yards and Stewart got into the endzone in his third consecutive game. Carolina's defense kept the Falcons out of the endzone and held Atlanta to just 108 yards in the second half. Chris Gamble recorded a team-high 11 tackles, while Julius Peppers notched his second sack of the season. The win marked the first time since 2003 that the Panthers opened 2-0 at home.

5 Carolina 34, Kansas City 0

October 5, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

DeAngelo Williams tied a career high, rushing for 123 yards and scoring three touchdowns to lead Carolina past Kansas City 34-0 in the Panthers' third straight home win of the season. The game marked the highest scoring margin in franchise history and the first time that Carolina shut out an opponent in two seasons. Carolina's offense tallied 441 total yards, going over 400 for the second straight week, also a new franchise first. Williams scored his first touchdown on Carolina's second drive, scampering 10 yards up the middle to the end zone. Just minutes into the second quarter, Jake Delhomme found Williams open in the flat and the running back ran 25-yards for a score, giving Carolina a 14-0 lead. Williams made it 21-0 before the half when he ran up the middle on a third down draw play for 32-yard touchdown. Jake Delhomme completed 14-of-22 passes for 236 yards and two touchdowns against one interception for a passer rating of 111.2. His second touchdown came in the second half, a 47-yard strike to Muhsin Muhammad. While the Panthers offense effectively moved the ball, the Carolina defense kept the Chiefs off the scoreboard. The Panthers held running back Larry Johnson, the AFC's rushing leader, to just two yards on seven carries, and the Chiefs managed just one first down and 28 total yards in the first half. Jon Beason and Ken Lucas picked off Chiefs quarterback Damon Huard, while Julius Peppers recorded a sack in the third straight game. On the play, Peppers knocked the ball loose and Damione Lewis recovered it. Charles Johnson and Tyler Brayton also notched sacks on the game.

6 Tampa Bay 27, Carolina 3

October 12, 2008 - Raymond James Stadium - Tampa

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers used a blocked punt and an interception to score 14 first-quarter points and down the Carolina Panthers 27-3. Tampa Bay's Geno Hayes blocked Jason Baker's punt on the game's fifth play and returned the ball 22 yards for a touchdown. With 5:21 left in the first quarter, Tampa Bay's Tanard Jackson intercepted a pass intended for Dante Rosario. The Buccaneers scored a touchdown five plays later to take a two-score lead. Carolina responded with a 10-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a John Kasay field goal, his 11th of the season. Tampa went on to notch two more field goals and a touchdown for the final margin. Delhomme threw for 242 yards on 20-of-39 passing with three interceptions. Steve Smith went over the century mark with 112 yards receiving on six catches. Carolina's offensive line did not allow a sack for the third straight game. Defensively, Jon Beason led the attack with 15 total tackles, while Na'il Diggs and Thomas Davis contributed 11 and nine solo tackles respectively.

7 Carolina 30, New Orleans 7

October 19, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

The Panthers converted two crucial turnovers into touchdowns to down the division rival Saints 30-7 at Bank of America Stadium. After New Orleans took a 7-3 lead on the first play of the second quarter, the Panthers went three-and-out, but Julius Peppers jarred the ball loose from tight end Jeremy Shockey and Chris Harris recovered his first fumble of the season. Four plays later, Jonathan Stewart ran through the right side for an 18-yard touchdown, his fifth of the year. Stewart finished with a game-high 68 yards rushing and one touchdown. Carolina added another field goal before the half that was set up by a 29-yard flea flicker pass from Jake Delhomme to Steve Smith. Smith and Delhomme hooked up again on the Panthers' first drive of the third quarter with a 39-yard touchdown pass, giving Carolina a 20-7 lead. Delhomme finished with 195 yards on 14-of-22 passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 122.3. Smith set a new season high with 122 yards receiving and one touchdown, as he took the lead for most touchdowns in his career as a Panther, one ahead of teammate Muhsin Muhammad. Delhomme's second touchdown went to DeAngelo Williams on a four-yard catch and run to the flat. Williams also had 66 yards rushing on 18 carries. Carolina's defense was led by Peppers who forced a fumble, recorded his fourth sack of the season, and deflected a pass. Ken Lucas picked off his second pass of the season and returned it 31 yards setting up the Williams touchdown. Thomas Davis led all tacklers with nine, including one tackle for loss. John Kasay kicked three field goals to give him a perfect 15 field goals on 15 attempts for the season.

8 Carolina 27, Arizona 23

October 26, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

The Carolina Panthers overcame a 17-3 third-quarter deficit to defeat the Arizona Cardinals, 27-23. Jake Delhomme completed seven of his eight second-half passes to rally the Panthers to three third-quarter touchdowns. Delhomme finished with 248 yards on 20-of-28 passing and two touchdowns with no interceptions for a passer rating of 122.3. Steve Smith was the recipient of both touchdowns as he went over the century mark for the third straight game with 117 receiving yards on five catches, including 18 and 65-yard touchdowns. After allowing a Cardinals touchdown just five minutes into the second half, a 31-yard Jeff King reception set up a 15-yard touchdown run from DeAngelo Williams to cut the deficit to 17-10. Williams finished the game with 108 yards on 17 carries and one touchdown. Two plays later, Maake Kemoeatu jarred the ball loose from Arizona's Edgerrin James and Thomas Davis recovered on the Arizona 18-yard line. Delhomme found Smith on the next play for the tying touchdown. Arizona respond with an 11-play, 78-yard drive to retake the lead. The extra point was muffed. On Carolina's next possession, Delhomme hit Smith along the sideline and Smith tiptoed past defenders for the 65-yard go-ahead touchdown, his longest of the season. A Jon Beason interception deep in Panthers territory with 11:54 left in the contest sealed the victory. Defensively, the Panthers were led by Beason and Chris Gamble who each recorded a team-high eight tackles, while Charles Johnson notched two sacks, two QB hurries, one forced fumble and one batted pass. John Kasay kicked two field goals to move ahead of Jan Stenerud for eighth place all time with 374 field goals.

9 Carolina 17, Oakland 6

November 9, 2008 - Oakland Alameda County Coliseum - Oakland

Running back DeAngelo Williams rushed for a career high 140 yards and the Panthers used several big turnovers to defeat the Oakland Raiders 17-6. Williams' 140 yards came on 19 carries, including a 69-yard touchdown run. Carolina's first score came off a fumble recovery by Adam Seward on the opening kickoff at the Oakland 16-yard line. Four plays later, Jake Delhomme found Muhsin Muhammad in the flat for a three-yard touchdown. Delhomme finished with 72 yards on 7-of-27 passing with one touchdown and four interceptions. Williams' 69-yard scoring run came in the second quarter to put Carolina up 14-0. The play was the longest TD run in Williams' career and the longest Panther scoring play of the season. Carolina's defense kept the Raiders out of the endzone and tied a franchise record by forcing 11 punts. Kick and punt returner Mark Jones had a big day, setting a career high with his 123 punt return yards, including a career-best 55-yard return. Jones also set a new career high with a 59-yard kickoff return. Julius Peppers led the defense with three sacks, two forced fumbles, three quarterback hurries, and one pass deflection. Jon Beason tallied a team-high 14 tackles, while Thomas Davis recorded 12 tackles and one sack. Charles Johnson also recorded a sack. Richard Marshall and Chris Gamble grabbed interceptions as Carolina's defense held Oakland quarterbacks Andrew Walter and Marques Tuiasosopo to a combined passer rating of 32.4. Carolina continued its NFC-leading red zone defense by not allowing any touchdowns on two trips.

10 Carolina 31, Detroit 22

November 16, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

The Carolina Panthers set a new franchise rushing record with 264 total rushing yards on their way to a 31-22 victory over Detroit. For the first time in franchise history, the Panthers had two backs rush for over 100 yards in the same contest. Jonathan Stewart ran for 130 yards on 15 carries and one touchdown while DeAngelo Williams ran for 120 yards on 14 carries and two touchdowns. Carolina fell behind 7-0 after a 29-yard touchdown pass from Daunte Culpepper to Calvin Johnson. After a Jason Hanson field goal made it 10-0 in the second quarter, Carolina strung together three consecutive scoring drives to take a 21-16 lead into halftime. A 15-yard touchdown strike from Jake Delhomme to Jeff King opened the Carolina scoring. The score was King's first touchdown reception of the season. Delhomme finished with 98 yards on 10-19 passing with no interceptions. Williams and Stewart capped off the other two first-half scoring drives with touchdown runs of 56 yards and 22 yards respectively. After Daunte Culpepper pulled the Lions to within two points on a touchdown run, the Panthers defense stopped the two-point conversion try on the goal-line. Charles Godfrey then picked off Culpepper on the first play of the Lions' next drive. Williams then scored from four yards for the final margin. Thomas Davis led the defensive effort with 11 tackles, 0.5 sacks, one quarterback hurry, a forced fumble and a pass broken up. Julius Peppers had two sacks, bringing his season total to nine sacks including six in the last four games. Godfrey finished with five tackles and a recovered fumble to go along with his fourth-quarter interception.

11 Atlanta 45, Carolina 28

November 23, 2008 - Georgia Dome - Atlanta

The Carolina Panthers snapped a four-game winning streak losing to the Atlanta Falcons 45-28 in divisional play. DeAngelo Williams rushed for 101 yards on 19 carries for one touchdown, marking the fourth consecutive game that he eclipsed the century mark, tying a team record. Jake Delhomme completed 21 of his 35 passing attempts for 295 yards and one touchdown against no interceptions. His primary target was Steve Smith who made eight catches for 168 yards, a new season high. The Panthers trailed 17-0 at the beginning of the second quarter after Atlanta scored on its first three possessions with touchdown runs from Harry Douglas and Michael Turner. Chris Gamble forced a fumble on Atlanta's fourth drive and the Panthers were able to capitalize with a field goal. Carolina opened the second half driving 80 yards for a touchdown that cut the margin to 17-10. DeAngelo Williams' five-yard touchdown was set up by a 41-yard pass from Delhomme to Smith. Carolina scored again to cut the lead to 17-13, but a 12-play, 80-yard TD drive capped by a 4-yard touchdown run from Turner, put Atlanta ahead 24-13 at the outset of the fourth quarter. Carolina responded again as Delhomme completed three passes for 63 yards and finished an 83-yard drive with a 12-yard touchdown scramble. Williams ran in to convert the 2-point conversion and Carolina trailed 24-21. Atlanta put the game out of reach on their next drive when Matt Ryan completed a 69-yard pass to Douglas on third and 11 that set up Turner's third rushing touchdown of the game. Defensively, the Panthers were led by Jon Beason's 13 tackles while Charles Godfrey tallied six tackles and one fumble recovery, his second of the season.

12 Carolina 35, Green Bay 31

November 30, 2008 - Lambeau Field - Green Bay

Steve Smith caught a 54-yard pass from Jake Delhomme and DeAngelo Williams found the endzone on the next play to cap Carolina's game-winning drive with 1:30 to play. Carolina took a 21-10 lead at halftime as Williams ran for 52 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries. Green Bay fought back in the third quarter and took a 28-21 lead when Aaron Rodgers found Greg Jennings for Rodgers' third passing touchdown of the game. Carolina responded with a 50-yard touchdown drive, sparked by a 36-yard catch from Smith, and capped by a one-yard rushing touchdown from Williams, his third of the game. Rodgers led the Packers back down the field again, but the Panthers stopped two running plays from one yard out of the goal line and forced a field goal, giving Green Bay a 31-28 lead. Mark Jones returned the ensuing kickoff to the 45-yard line and Delhomme found Smith for 54 yards on the next play. Williams' game-winning touchdown was his fourth of the game, setting a new franchise record. Williams finished with 72 yards on a career-high 21 carries and four touchdowns. Smith notched his 30th career 100-yard receiving game with 105 yards on four catches. Delhomme completed 12-of-17 passes for 177 yards and rushed for one touchdown. Defensively, Carolina was led by Jon Beason who had nine tackles and the game-sealing interception on Green Bay's final drive.

13 Carolina 38, Tampa Bay 23

December 8, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

The Carolina Panthers moved their record to 10-3 with a record setting rushing performance as they beat the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 38-23 on Monday Night Football. The Panthers ran the ball for a team record 299 yards as DeAngelo Williams rushed for a franchise record 186 yards and two touchdowns, while Jonathan Stewart added 115 yards and two touchdowns. Steve Smith added 117 yards and a 38-yard touchdown on a season-high nine catches to mark the first time in Panthers history that Carolina had two 100-yard rushers and one 100-yard receiver in the same game. Williams' two rushing touchdowns set a new regular season franchise mark for rushing touchdowns with 13, while Stewart's two touchdowns set a new regular season mark for touchdowns in a rookie year with eight. The Panthers took a first-quarter lead on a John Kasay field goal and held a 10-3 halftime advantage after Stewart capped an 8-play, 73-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run. Tampa tied the game at 10-10 in the third quarter on a 50-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Bryant. The Panthers responded when Jake Delhomme, who finished with 173 yards on 14-of-20 passing with one touchdown and two interceptions, found Steve Smith in the corner of the end zone for a 38-yard touchdown. Tampa Bay tied the score again on their next drive, but Carolina took the lead for good on their next drive when Stewart set up his second touchdown with an 18-yard run deep into Buccaneers territory. After a Julius Peppers sack forced a Bucs punt, DeAngelo Williams sealed the win with a 41-yard run followed by a 16-yard touchdown run. Williams and Stewart became the first two backs in NFL history to rush for over 100-yards, two touchdowns and average over 7.5 yards per carry in a game. Defensively, the Panthers were led by Jon Beason and Richard Marshall who each recorded 12 tackles, while Marshall also notched his first sack of the season. Julius Peppers had six tackles and 1.5 sacks.

14 Carolina 30, Denver 10

December 14, 2008 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

With a 30-10 victory over Denver, Carolina moved to 11-3 and finished the regular season a perfect 8-0 at home for the first time since 1996. Jake Delhomme led the Panthers with 17-of-26 passing for 253 yards and one touchdown against one interception for a passer rating of 93.9. Delhomme's touchdown pass came on Carolina's first drive when he found Steve Smith in the flat who ran in from 15 yards out. Denver scored twice in the first quarter, but a Chris Gamble interception set up a John Kasay field goal that tied the game at 10 by the end of the first period. Denver only managed 143 net yards for the remainder of the game and the Panthers were able to keep them off the scoreboard. Steve Smith had his fourth 100-yard receiving game in a row and the seventh of the season, while scoring his sixth touchdown. DeAngelo Williams ran for 88 yards on 12 carries including a 56-yard touchdown run, while Jonathan Stewart ran for 52 yards and one touchdown. John Kasay tied a season high by hitting three field goals, including one before the half that was set up by a Tyler Brayton fumble recovery. Defensively, Jon Beason led all players with 12 total tackles, while Thomas Davis recorded nine tackles, one sack and one batted pass. Brayton had six tackles, one sack and two quarterback hurries to go along with his fumble recovery.

15 New York Giants 34, Carolina 28

December 21, 2008 - Giants Stadium - East Rutherford, NJ

In a battle for first place in the NFC, the New York Giants won an overtime thriller with a 2-yard touchdown run by Brandon Jacobs with 9:57 left in overtime. Both teams scored on their first two possessions as New York managed a field goal and a Jacobs TD run while DeAngelo Williams scored two of his four touchdowns on Carolina's first two possessions. Williams finished with 108 yards on 24 carries and four touchdowns, matching the single-game record that he set against Green Bay. After trailing 21-10 with four minutes left in the first half, New York rallied to within 21-20 at the start of the fourth quarter before Williams broke out for a 30-yard touchdown run, his fourth of the game. New York tied the game with a Jacobs TD run and a two-point conversion. Carolina was able to drive into field goal territory, but the swirling winds pushed a 50-yard game-winning attempt from John Kasay wide left. The Giants won the toss in overtime, but Carolina forced a punt. After the Panthers' drive stalled, R.W. McQuarters muffed the ensuing punt, but the Giants recovered. On the next play, Derrick Ward sprinted for a 51-yard run to the Panthers' 36, setting up the game-winning touchdown. Defensively, Carolina was led by Thomas Davis who had 11 tackles and one sack. Jon Beason finished with 10 tackles, while Julius Peppers and Tyler Brayton also registered sacks.

16 Carolina 33, New Orleans 31

December 28, 2008 - Louisiana Superdome - New Orleans

The Carolina Panthers concluded the regular season with a 12-4 mark and claimed the NFC South title after defeating the New Orleans Saints 33-31. John Kasay connected on a 42-yard field goal with one second remaining to seal the victory. With 3:11 remaining in the fourth quarter, Jake Delhomme opened his third game-winning drive of the season connecting with Steve Smith on a 39-yard pass to the New Orleans 43. Delhomme finished the game with 14-of-20 completions for 250 yards, and one touchdown for a passer rating of 129.2. Smith led all receivers with 134 yards and five catches. The Panthers jumped ahead of the Saints early taking a 23-3 lead in the second quarter after Dante Wesley recovered a fumble during a kickoff and ran for a 12-yard touchdown. The play came just seconds after Delhomme hooked up with Muhsin Muhammad for an 8-yard touchdown. Jonathan Stewart recorded the only score of the third quarter with a two-yard touchdown run to give Carolina a 30-10 lead. The Panthers rushing attack finished the game with 234 yards and one touchdown, led by Williams' 178 yards on 25 carries. New Orleans answered by scoring three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to take a 31-30 lead with 3:11 remaining in the game. Drew Brees passed for 386 yards on 30 completed passes with four touchdowns and one interception. Thomas Davis led Carolina's defense with eight tackles while Chris Harris notched his first interception of the season to go along with four tackles and a deflected pass. Carolina's special teams were integral as Wesley recorded his first fumble recovery of the season and the first touchdown of his career while Kasay hit four of his five field goal attempts including the game-winner.

NFC Divisional Playoffs
Carolina 26, Dallas 17
January 5, 1997 - Ericsson Stadium - Charlotte

WEATHER: Partly Cloudy, 67º, Wind SW 15 mph - ATTENDANCE: 72,808 - TIME: 2:58

In the first playoff game in team history, the Carolina Panthers stuck to a formula that had worked all season, using an opportunistic offense, a Sam Mills led defense, solid special teams and an uplifting record-sized crowd to defeat the defending Super Bowl Champion Dallas Cowboys 26-17.

Running back Anthony Johnson earned his sixth 100-yard game of the season behind a performance by the offensive line which did not allow quarterback Kerry Collins to be sacked all day. Collins completed a workmanlike 12 of 22 passes for 100 yards and two touchdowns and directed the team to 17 first-half points. The defense supplied a team effort with interceptions by Chad Cota, Pat Terrell and Mills and sacks by Lamar Lathon and Les Miller, while successfully executing three goal-line stands from inside their own five-yard line. Kicker John Kasay converted on all four field goal attempts.

The Cowboys took a 3-0 lead on a 22-yard field goal before a Collins pass to Walls following a 68-yard drive put the Panthers ahead 7-3. After trading touchdowns, the Cowboys got within three following a Panthers safety when a snap sailed over punter Rohn Stark's head. Cota's interception on Dallas' ensuing possession, however, set up a 24-yard Kasay field goal and a 17-11 halftime lead.

The two teams traded field goals in the third quarter and again to begin the fourth, with Chris Boniol converting twice from 21 and Kasay twice from 40. After the Panthers downed a Stark punt at the one, Terrell's interception set up a Kasay 32-yard conversion before Mills' interception and return to the one, sealed the game.

NFC Championship
Green Bay 30, Carolina 13
January 12, 1997 - Lambeau Field - Green Bay

WEATHER: Cold and Windy, 3º, Wind W 10 mph - ATTENDANCE: 60,216 - TIME: 3:04

On a day with wind chill tempratures at more than 20 below zero, the Carolina Panthers surrendered 17 second-quarter points and 479 yards of total offense to the Green Bay Packers and fell one game short of the Super Bowl, 30-13.

The Panthers got ahead early following a Sam Mills interception at the Green Bay 12, which was returned to the two. Kerry Collins found fullback Howard Griffith all alone in the end zone two plays later for a 7-0 Carolina lead.

After Brett Favre drove the Packers for their first touchdown, the Panthers replied with a John Kasay 22-yard field goal following a Lamar Lathon recovery of a Favre fumble. The Packers came back with a touchdown and a field goal before the half, however, and held a 17-10 advantage at the break.

Both teams traded field goals to open the second half before a Dorsey Levens 66-yard reception off a screen set up a Packers touchdown. A Packers fourth-quarter field goal following a Panthers fumble supplied the 30-13 margin.

Mills led the defense with 14 tackles and an interception while Collins completed 19 of 37 passes for 215 yards, with a touchdown and two interceptions. Willie Green led all Panthers in receiving with 51 yards on five receptions.

NFC Wildcard Game
Carolina 29, Dallas 10
January 3, 2004 - Ericsson Stadium - Charlotte

WEATHER: Partly Cloudy, 63º, Wind SSW 9 mph - ATTENDANCE: 72,324 - TIME: 2:56

Behind a dominating defense, Carolina defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 29-10, at Ericsson Stadium to reach the second-round of the playoffs for the first time since the 1996 season. The Panthers held the Cowboys to 204 yards of total offense while not giving up any penalties or turnovers.

Quarterback Jake Delhomme completed 18-of-29 passes for 273 yards and a touchdown, running back Stephen Davis rushed 26 times for 104 yards, wide receiver Steve Smith caught five passes for 135 yards and a touchdown, and kicker John Kasay converted on all five of his field goal attempts.

On Carolina's third play from scrimmage, Delhomme hit Smith in the flat, and Smith raced 70 yards to the Cowboys one-yard line. Four plays later Kasay booted his first field goal from 18 yards out, and the Panthers never looked back.

Carolina took advantage of field position later in the first quarter as Kasay made his second field goal, this time from 38 yards, to give the Panthers a 6-0 lead. In the second quarter, Carolina started another drive in Dallas territory, and Davis rambled 23 yards for a touchdown to give the Panthers a 13-0 lead.

Cowboys kicker Billy Cundiff put the Cowboys on the board with a 37-yard field goal late in the second quarter. Carolina got one more field goal from Kasay to close out the first half leaving the score 16-3 at the break.

The Panthers added a 32-yard Delhomme-to-Smith touchdown pass and Kasay's fourth field goal to stretch the lead to 26-3 before Dallas answered with a nine-yard touchdown run by quarterback Quincy Carter. Kasay's fifth field goal with 3:12 remaining provided the final margin.

Panthers middle linebacker Dan Morgan led the defense with 12 tackles, while Al Wallace, Kris Jenkins and Reggie Howard contributed a sack a piece. Davis posted his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season.

NFC Divisional Playoffs
Carolina 29, St. Louis 23 (2 OT)
January 10, 2004 - Edward Jones Dome - St. Louis

WEATHER: Played Indoors on Artificial Turf - ATTENDANCE: 66,165 - TIME: 4:06

The Panthers defeated the host St. Louis Rams 29-23 in double overtime at the Edward Jones Dome to earn their second trip to the NFC Championship Game. Steve Smith took a pass from Jake Delhomme and sprinted to a game-winning touchdown to closeout the game, the fifth longest in NFL history and the longest ever for the Panthers.
The Carolina defense held the Rams to two field goals in the first half before Panthers wide receiver Muhsin Muhammad recovered a deflected lateral by Delhomme in the end zone for a touchdown. Each team added a field goal each, to give the Panthers a one-point lead at the half, 10-9.
The Panthers built an 11-point lead in the fourth quarter off a Brad Hoover touchdown and John Kasay field goal, but the Rams scored 11 points in the last 2:39 of regulation to force overtime.
The Panthers took the opening drive of overtime to the St. Louis 22-yard line, but a delay-of-game penalty canceled Kasay's successful 40-yard field goal. Kasay then missed the second attempt three plays later from 45 yards out.
The Rams drove to the Carolina 35-yard line on their first possession in overtime, but kicker Jeff Wilkins, who had already made five field goals, was inches short on a 53-yard attempt.
The Rams then drove to the Panthers 38-yard line on their ensuing possession when cornerback Ricky Manning Jr. outwrestled Rams receiver Torry Holt for the ball and came down with the interception.
Facing third-and-14 from their own 31-yard line on the first play of the second overtime, Delhomme hit Smith on a slant pattern for 69 yards and the game-winning points.
The Panthers outgained the Rams 485 yards to 380, including 216 to 64 in rushing yardage. They won the time of possession battle 41:06 to 34:04 and held the Rams to just six possessions and 12 points through the first three quarters.
Delhomme completed 16-of-26 passes for 290 yards, with one touchdown and one interception for a quarterback rating of 96.6. Running back DeShaun Foster stepped in for an injured Stephen Davis, who left the game in the second quarter, and contributed 95 yards on 21 carries.

NFC Championship
Carolina 14, Philadelphia 3
January 18, 2004 - Lincoln Financial Field - Philadelphia

WEATHER: Mostly Cloudy, 33º, Wind WNW 19 mph - ATTENDANCE: 67,862 - TIME: 2:58

In just their ninth season of existence, the Panthers claimed a bid to Super Bowl XXXVIII by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-3 at Lincoln Financial Field in the NFC Championship game. Carolina took advantage of four interceptions, three by rookie cornerback Ricky Manning, to hold the Philadelphia offense to only one field goal.

The first quarter was scoreless as both teams punted twice. Early in the second quarter, a Carolina fumble was recovered by Jermaine Wiggins to gain the first down and allow the Panthers to continue what would be the first scoring drive of the game.

On first-and-10 from the Philadelphia 24-yard line, Delhomme hit wide receiver Muhsin Muhammad in the end zone for the score. A John Kasay PAT kick gave the Panthers a 7-0 lead.

The Eagles answered with a 14-play, 44-yard drive that culminated with a 41-yard field goal by David Akers. The Eagles were driving again in the final two minutes of the half when Manning grabbed his first interception.

On the opening drive of the second half, the Eagles drove to the Panthers 18-yard line, but Manning again came up with the big play, intercepting Donovan McNabb at the 14-yard line.

A hit by Mike Minter on Eagles wide receiver James Thrash enabled Manning to record his third interception and put the Panthers in position for their final score. With 4:18 remaining in the third quarter, running back DeShaun Foster produced the game's second touchdown, breaking five tackles and reaching over the goal line on a one-yard run.

The Eagles went three-and-out on their final two possessions of the third quarter, and their final threat ended midway through the fourth quarter when backup quarterback Koy Detmer, who replaced an injured McNabb, was intercepted by Dan Morgan at the Carolina 11-yard line to thwart the Eagles final significant scoring opportunity.

Morgan led Carolina with 13 tackles and one interception while Brentson Buckner contributed 1.5 sacks. Running back Stephen Davis added 76 yards on 19 carries as the Panthers rushed for a total 155 yards.

Super Bowl XXXVIII
New England 32, Carolina 29
February 1, 2004 - Reliant Stadium - Houston

WEATHER: Played indoors on grass - ATTENDANCE: 71,525 - TIME: 4:05

In their first Super Bowl, the Carolina Panthers scored 19 fourth-quarter points to tie New England with one minute remaining, but kicker Adam Vinatieri converted a 41-yard field goal to give the Patriots a 32-29 victory for their second Super Bowl victory in three seasons.
The first quarter was scoreless, with help from the Panthers defense who kept New England off the board by blocking one Vinatieri field goal and withstanding another missed attempt.
In the second quarter, a Carolina fumble on the 19-yard line was recovered by defensive tackle Richard Seymour and set up a Tom Brady five-yard touchdown pass to Deion Branch. The touchdown broke the tie with 3:10 remaining in the half, the longest a Super Bowl had ever gone without a score.
Quarterback Jake Delhomme led the Panthers on an eight-play, 95-yard drive, the second longest in Super Bowl history, that culminated with a Delhomme-to-Steve Smith touchdown pass from 39 yards out.
Brady completed four of six passes for 78 yards, and with 23 seconds remaining in the half, hit wide receiver David Givens with another five-yard touchdown pass to put the Patriots back in front, 14-7.
Kris Mangum returned a kickoff to the Panthers 47-yard line and after a 21-yard run by Stephen Davis, the Panthers called timeout with five seconds left. John Kasay booted a 50-yard field goal as the first half expired to make it 14-10.
On the second play of the fourth quarter, Patriots running back Antowain Smith scored on a two-yard run that extended the New England lead to 21-10.
DeShaun Foster finished a six-play, 81-yard Panther drive with a 33-yard touchdown run, the fourth-longest run in Super Bowl history. Carolina missed on their two-point attempt and the score was 21-16.
New England drove down the field and threatened to extend their lead once again, but Reggie Howard intercepted Brady's pass in the end zone and returned it to the 10-yard line.
Three plays later, Delhomme hit Muhsin Muhammad for an 85-yard touchdown, giving the Panthers their first lead with 7:06 remaining in the game. The Panthers missed on another two-point attempt, keeping the score 22-21.
The scoring continued as the Patriots drove 68 yards in 11 plays, ending with a Mike Vrabel touchdown. New England converted their two-point attempt and led 29-22 with 2:55 remaining.
Delhomme then drove his team 80 yards on just seven plays, hitting Ricky Proehl across the middle for a 12-yard touchdown that tied the game with 1:13 remaining. However, Brady mounted one last scoring drive to set up Vinatieri at the Carolina 34-yard line for the winning kick.

NFC Wild Card Game
Carolina 23, New York Giants 0
January 8, 2006 - Giants Stadium - East Rutherford

WEATHER: Sunny, 44º - ATTENDANCE: 79,378 - TIME: 2:39

Carolina's defense held a New York Giants offense that ranked third in the NFL in points per game scoreless en route to notching the third shutout in team history with a 23-0 victory over the Giants in the NFC Wild Card game. – Carolina became the first team to register a shutout on the road in the playoffs since 1980 when the Los Angeles Rams posted a 9-0 victory at Tampa Bay (01/05/80) in the 1979 NFC Championship. – The Panthers forced five sacks and five turnovers, converting four of them into 16 points. – The defense yielded a season-low 132 total net yards to New York, who ranked fourth in the NFL in total offense during the regular season with an average of 361.7 yards per game. – Running back DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards to help the Panthers accumulate 223 yards rushing on 45 attempts and maintain possession for 42:45. The time of possession was the highest in team history for any game, bettering the previous record of 41:51 at New Orleans (12/05/04). The team's rushing attempts tied for the most in team history and the rushing yards equalled the second-highest total. – Safety Marlon McCree matched his career-high with two interceptions.

NFC Divisional Playoffs
Carolina 29, Chicago 21
January 15, 2006 - Soldier Field - Chicago

WEATHER: Partly Cloudy,40º - ATTENDANCE: 62,209 - TIME: 3:23

Carolina totaled 434 yards against the NFL's second-ranked defense in a 29-21 victory over the Chicago Bears in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. – The contest marked the Panthers fourth consecutive postseason road victory to equal the NFL record for the most consecutive road postseason victories, previously accomplished by Dallas from 1975-81. – The Panthers became the fourth team since 1990 to win an NFC Divisional Playoff game on the road. – Carolina allowed one sack against the Bears after allowing a season-high eight in their regular season contest at Chicago (11/20/05) and scored 29 points against a Bears defense that allowed a League-low 12.9 points per game during the regular season and a total of 61 points at home during the regular season. – Wide receiver Steve Smith amassed 218 yards receiving, the most in team history and fourth-highest total in a playoff game in NFL history, and two touchdowns on 12 receptions, which tied for the second-most catches in NFL postseason history. – Quarterback Jake Delhomme registered his second career 300-yard passing effort in the playoffs and his fifth postseason game with a passer rating of 100 or more. – The Panthers defense yielded only three-of-13 third down conversions against the Bears. With the victory, head coach John Fox became only the fifth head coach in NFL history to record at least four postseason road wins.

NFC Championship
Seattle 34, Carolina 14
January 22, 2006 - Qwest Field - Seattle

WEATHER: Overcast, 48º - ATTENDANCE: 67,837 - TIME: 3:09

Seattle's defense forced four turnovers and held the Panthers to 212 total yards in a 34-14 victory in the 2005 NFC Championship Game. – Carolina was limited to 36 yards by the Seahawks fifth-ranked rushing defense and converted only one-of-nine third down opportunities. Interceptions on consecutive Carolina possessions enabled Seattle to transform a 7-0 lead into a 17-0 advantage in the second quarter. – Wide receiver Steve Smith established an NFL record for the most catches in a postseason with 27, surpassing the previous mark of 23 set by Anthony Carter with Minnesota in the 1987 postseason. Smith's 59-yard punt return for a touchdown enabled him to become the first player in NFL history to score a touchdown on a run, pass and punt return in the same postseason. – Running back Nick Goings, who started in place of the injured DeShaun Foster, was shaken up in the first quarter and did not return to the game.

NFC Divisional Playoffs
Arizona 33, Carolina 13
January 10, 2009 - Bank of America Stadium - Charlotte

WEATHER: Showers, 45º, SW 10 MPH- ATTENDANCE: 73,695 - TIME: 3:11

The Carolina Panthers dropped a 33-13 decision at home in the NFC divisional playoffs to end the 2008 campaign. The Panthers jumped out to an early lead when Jonathan Stewart capped Carolina's opening drive with a nine-yard touchdown run. However, the Panthers only managed one more first down for the rest of the first half as they turned the ball over twice and punted three times. Arizona quarterback Kurt Warner hooked up with Larry Fitzgerald for 151 yards and a touchdown in the first half as the Cardinals jumped to a 27-7 lead at the intermission. Jake Delhomme found Steve Smith for an 8-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. Delhomme finished with 205 yards on 17-34 passing with one touchdown and five interceptions. DeAngelo Williams managed 63 yards rushing on 12 carries. Defensively, Jon Beason notched a second-half interception along with nine tackles. Thomas Davis led the team with 11 tackles including one for a loss, while Damione Lewis recorded a sack.

TEAMHISTORY

April 16	Jerry Richardson approaches NationsBank Chairman Hugh McColl about the idea of bringing an NFL team to the Carolinas.
July 16	Jerry and Mark Richardson; NationsBank Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Hugh McColl, Jr.; attorney Richard Thigpen, Jr.; Max Muhleman of Muhleman Marketing and John Lewis of Arthur Andersen and Company meet in Charlotte to discuss the feasibility of entering the multi-city competition for two NFL expansion franchises.
August 21	Mark Richardson travels to Kansas City, Missouri, to select HOK Sports Facilities Group as the architects for an NFL stadium, later named Ericsson Stadium.
December 15	Jerry Richardson officially announces an NFL franchise bid and the stadium effort for the Carolinas and begins lobbying NFL owners.

1988

July 1	Jerry Richardson announces the near completion of franchise financing plans and the selection of four possible stadium sites — two in York County, South Carolina, and two in North Carolina.

1989

April 11	Mike McCormack, a Hall of Fame lineman with the Cleveland Browns and former president, general manager and head coach of the Seattle Seahawks, joins Richardson Sports as executive consultant for the Carolinas NFL expansion effort.
August 20	At "Carolinas Kickoff '89"staged by Richardson Sports, a sellout crowd of 52,855 in Raleigh's Carter-Finley Stadium watches the New York Jets and Philadelphia Eagles, demonstrating the region's support of NFL football in the Carolinas.
September 5	Jerry Richardson announces the formation of a 12-member partnership group to bolster his expansion effort.
December 15	Richardson Sports selects a site in uptown Charlotte as the future site of a privately financed NFL stadium, which will seat more than 70,000 people.

August 11	"Carolinas Kickoff II" features the Washington Redskins and the Atlanta Falcons in a game billed as the "Backyard Battle" before a sellout crowd of 52,036 Carolinians, this time at Kenan Stadium in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

1991

February 26	F.N. Thompson Company of Charlotte is selected as the general contractor for the later-named Ericsson Stadium.
June 26	South Carolina Governor Carroll Campbell and North Carolina Governor Jim Martin officially announce their support of NFL expansion in the Carolinas through the formation of a blue-ribbon committee of leading citizens from both states.
August 24	69,117 fans cram Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia, South Carolina for the "Victory Bowl" or "Carolinas Kickoff III." The crowd represents the largest neutral-site attendance for an NFL exhibition game in 10 years.
September 13	Richardson Sports submits a formal community application for a Carolinas NFL franchise along with a $100,000 deposit. This application outlines demographics and other market statistics and NationsBank commitment to finance the stadium.
September 30	Richardson Sports submits a partnership application for a Carolinas franchise.
December 10	Richardson Sports representatives make Carolina's presentation to NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, President Neil Austrian and their staff in New York.

March 18	At the NFL owners meeting in Phoenix, the NFL reduces the number of expansion hopefuls from 11 to seven with the Carolinas' bid making the cut.
May 20	At the league meeting in Pasadena, California, the NFL cuts the list of expansion hopefuls to five communities — including the Carolinas.
September 1	Jerry and Mark Richardson present a stadium financing plan to NFL officials at a meeting in Charlotte. Although no details are revealed publicly, the Richardsons disclose that no public money would be used to finance the stadium. This financing plan involves the sale of Permanent Seat Licenses (PSLs).
October 20	At the NFL owners meeting in Chicago, league officials delay expansion until 1993 because of a labor dispute involving the players' union collective bargaining agreement.

March 23	At the league meeting in Palm Desert, California, NFL owners announce the final timetable for expansion with plans calling for two teams to be awarded in October 1993.
April 20	The NFL gives approval to Richardson Sports' plan to privately finance a 72,300-seat stadium with the sale of Permanent Seat Licenses (PSLs).
May 6	The NFL and its players reach a landmark settlement regarding a seven-year collective bargaining agreement, clearing the way for expansion.
May 20	Jerry Richardson unveils a model and renderings of the Panther blue, silver and black, 72,300-seat stadium that would house an NFL expansion team for the Carolinas.
May 25	At the owners meeting in Atlanta, the NFL announces the price for an expansion franchise — $140 million.
July 1	A Fair Share Agreement between Richardson Sports and the NAACP spells out far-reaching opportunities for minorities with the Carolinas NFL expansion team.
July 1	The sale of luxury suites, club seats and PSLs officially begins with Richardson Sports receiving 15,000 pieces of mail from first-day orders collected June 28-July 1. By the end of the first day, all 8,314 club seats sell out, and all 104 luxury suites are reserved and ultimately leased. (Later 33 additional suites are added to Carolinas Stadium.) First-day PSL orders total 41,632.
August 31	Richardson Sports travels to New York to deliver its financing plan to the NFL.
September 3	The ticket campaign for potential NFL expansion cities ends with the Carolinas receiving orders for 104 luxury suites, 8,314 club seats and 49,724 PSLs. Deposits for luxury suites, club seats and PSLs total $54 million, representing a total pledge of $112.7 million.
September 10	Richardson Sports delivers to the NFL term sheets for loans to construct a state-of-the-art stadium and purchase the franchise.
September 13	Richardson Sports and Clemson University announce that the Carolinas NFL expansion team would play its first season (1995) in Clemson Memorial Stadium, known as "Death Valley."
September 22	Richardson Sports makes a 1 1/2-hour presentation to the NFL expansion and finance committees and league officials, including Commissioner Tagliabue. They report to the league that NationsBank and Wachovia have posted a $30-million guarantee to purchase unsold PSLs. Effectively, the stadium is sold out, and total money pledged is $142.7 million.
OCTOBER 26	At the league meeting in Chicago, NFL owners unanimously select the Carolinas as the 29th NFL franchise and the first expansion team since 1976. Owners also voted to delay selection of the second franchise until November 30 with Baltimore, St. Louis, Jacksonville and Memphis still under consideration.

January 1	Jon Richardson officially joins the Panthers as Director of Stadium Operations.
January 3	The Carolina Panthers put 12,000 remaining PSLs on sale. All orders received January 3-8 are given first-day priority. In addition, they announce that the remaining 10,000 PSLs will remain on sale until they are sold out. In all, Panthers fans respond from 16 states and the District of Columbia during the week-long priority period.
January 12	Jerry Richardson announces the hiring of veteran NFL executive Bill Polian as general manager and the promotion of Mike McCormack to club president.
April 22	Led by owner and founder Jerry Richardson, the Carolina Panthers hold the groundbreaking ceremony at the stadium's uptown site. The construction is expected to take 27 months to complete.
April 24	The Carolina Panthers move to the front of the 1995 draft order when owner and founder Jerry Richardson wins a coin flip with Wayne Weaver of the Jacksonville Jaguars during the NFL draft. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue flipped the coin at the NFL draft headquarters.
May 3	The Panthers accept Wofford Board Of Trustees Chairman Walt Sessions' invitation to hold training camp on the Spartanburg campus beginning with the inaugural season in 1995.
May 26	The NFL owners vote to pit the expansion Panthers and Jacksonville Jaguars against one another in the 1995 Hall of Fame game. The game will be the first game in team history for both franchises.
July 19	The Panthers select Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina, to be the team's temporary practice site until completion of the team's facilities at Ericsson Stadium.

October 5 — The Carolina Panthers hold their first free agent workout at Winthrop University in Rock Hill, SC. Participating are former Duke running back Randy Cuthbert and former Johnson C. Smith wide receiver Gregory Clifton, along with Matt Elliott, Darryl Moore, Beno Bryant, and Jeff Pahukoa.

November 2 — NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue slots the Carolina Panthers in the NFC West, joining the Atlanta Falcons, New Orleans Saints, Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers.

December 15 — The original Carolina Panthers are signed. Matt Campbell, Randy Cuthbert, Kevin Farkas, Mike Finn, Willie Green, Carlson Leomiti, Darryl Moore, Tony Smith, Lawyer Tillman and Eric Weir form the group.

1995

January 4 — The Panthers hire the team's first coaches, adding offensive line coach Jim McNally and wide receivers coach Richard Williamson, both from the Cincinnati Bengals.

January 23 — The Panthers sign Dom Capers from the Pittsburgh Steelers as the first head coach in team history.

February 15 — The Carolina Panthers select 35 players in the expansion draft. With the second overall pick they select cornerback Rod Smith from the New England Patriots.

February 20 — The Carolina Panthers sign two unrestricted free agents: kicker John Kasay from the Seattle Seahawks and defensive end Mike Fox from the New York Giants. The signings mark the first unrestricted free agents to join the Panthers in team history.

April 4 — The Panthers take the field for the first time as a team during the first of a series of off-season workout sessions.

April 22 — The Carolina Panthers make quarterback Kerry Collins of Penn State the team's first draft choice, selecting him with the fifth overall selection, acquired from Cincinnati.

May 2 — Panthers owner Jerry Richardson announces his resignation as chairman from Flagstar in order to devote his attention to his involvement in NFL activities.

May 3 — Carolinas Stadium Corp hosts topping out ceremonies at the stadium, recognizing that construction has reached its highest point.

July 14 — The Panthers report to the team's first ever training camp, marking the official beginning of the inaugural season campaign.

July 29 — The Carolina Panthers defeat the Jacksonville Jaguars 20-14 in the Hall of Fame Game, becoming the first NFL team to win its inaugural contest.

September 3 — The Panthers lose 23-20 in overtime to the Atlanta Falcons in the team's first regular-season game.

October 15 — The Panthers earn their first win in franchise history, defeating the New York Jets 26-15, highlighted by Sam Mills' 36-yard interception return for a touchdown.

November 5 — The Panthers win an expansion-record fourth game in a row, defeating the San Francisco 49ers 13-7 at 3Com Park, marking the first time in league history an expansion team defeated the defending world champion.

December 24 — The Panthers wind up their inaugural season with a 7-9 record, more than doubling the previous expansion-best mark of three wins. The NFL seventh-ranked defense had the best record of any non-playoff team in the league over the last eleven weeks, posting a 7-4 record after opening the season 0-5. The team notches an expansion-best 5-3 home record at it's home-away-from-home field at Clemson's Memorial Stadium.

June 26 — Carolina Panthers Director of Business Operations Mark Richardson announces an agreement to name the Panthers new home Ericsson Stadium.

July 26 — The six bronze panthers that flank each of Ericsson Stadium's main entrances are unveiled. The statues were the largest sculpture commission in the United States.

July 27 — The gates of Ericsson Stadium are opened for the first time at PSL Appreciation Day marking the first public event in the Stadium.

August 3 — The Panthers defeat the Chicago Bears 30-12 in a preseason game, the team's first contest in their new home.

September 1 — The Panthers defeat the Atlanta Falcons 29-6 in the first regular season game at Ericsson Stadium.

December 22 — Defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 18-14 with a last minute goal-line stand, the Panthers conclude the 1996 regular season with a 12-4 record and the NFC West division title. The team recovered from a 5-4 start to win its last seven games and a first-round playoff bye. John Kasay's three field goals against the Steelers give him 37 for the season and a new single-season NFL record.

January 5 — The Panthers defeat the defending Super Bowl Champion Dallas Cowboys 26-17 at Ericsson Stadium in the team's first playoff game.

March 12 — Panthers President Mike McCormack announces his retirement as president of the Carolina Panthers, ending a 46-year NFL career as a player, coach and executive.

April 2 — Jon Richardson is named president of Carolinas Stadium Corp and Mark Richardson president of the Carolina Panthers.

September 21	Mike McCormack is inducted as the first member of the Carolina Panthers Hall of Honor.

1998

September 27	During halftime ceremonies of the Panthers game versus Green Bay, Sam Mills is inducted into the Carolina Panthers Hall of Honor as the first former player to be so recognized.

1999

January 4	George Seifert, who guided San Francisco to two Super Bowl titles as head coach and won a total of five Super Bowl rings with the 49ers, is named as the second head coach of the Carolina Panthers. Seifert comes to Carolina after compiling an 108-35 (including playoffs) record in eight seasons at San Francisco, giving him the best winning percentage in NFL history (.755).

2001

May 22	At the NFL Spring Meeting in Rosemont, Illinois, NFL owners unanimously approved the realignment of the League into eight four-team divisions when the Houstons Texans begin play in 2002. Carolina was placed in the NFC South division with Atlanta, New Orleans and Tampa Bay.

2002

January 25	The Panthers name John Fox as the third head coach in franchise history. Carolina is the first head coaching position for Fox, who was the defensive coordinator for the New York Giants from 1997-2001.
February 22	Marty Hurney promoted to General Manager from Director of Football Operations.
September 8	Panthers break 15-consecutive game losing streak with 10-7 victory over Baltimore Ravens in John Fox's head coaching debut.

2003

September 7	Panthers stage biggest rally in team history, overcoming 17-0 deficit in season opener against Jacksonville as quarterback Jake Delhomme comes off the bench to throw three second half touchdown passes.
October 12	Carolina goes 5-0 with an overtime victory at Indianapolis to record best start in franchise history as John Kasay kicks a 47-yard field goal.
October 26	Panthers set NFL record with their third overtime road victory on a 31-yard John Kasay field goal as Stephen Davis sets a club record for yards rushing in a single game with 178 on 31 carries.
December 14	Carolina wins its first NFC South title as John Kasay kicks a 49-yard field goal with four seconds remaining to give Panthers a 20-17 victory at Arizona and clinch second playoff berth in team history.

January 3	In the second home playoff game in team history and first since January 5, 1997, the Panthers defeat Dallas 29-10 at Ericsson Stadium.
January 10	In fifth longest game in NFL history, the Panthers score on the first play of the second overtime as Jake Delhomme hits Steve Smith with a 69-yard scoring pass to give Carolina an NFC Divisional win at St. Louis, breaking a 14-game home winning streak by the Rams.
January 16	Bank of America and Carolina Panthers announced an title sponsorship agreement at Founders Hall remaining the Panthers home Bank of America Stadium
January 18	Carolina wins its first NFC Championship, defeating Philadelphia 14-3 at Lincoln Financial Field as Ricky Manning, Jr. ties an NFL Championship game record with three interceptions.
February 1	The Panthers play in Super Bowl XXXVIII at Reliant Stadium in Houston, TX, losing to the New England Patriots 32-29.

August 13	The Panthers retired jersey number 51, making Sam Mills the only player in team history to receive the honor. Mills played for the Panthers from 1995-97 and earned a Pro Bowl selection in 1996. After retiring in 1997, Mills became a scout for the Panthers in 1998 and served as the team's linebackers coach from 1999-2004. He became the first former player and second member of the Panthers Hall of Honor in 1998.

January 8	The Panthers registered the first road playoff shutout in the NFL since 1979, defeating the New York Giants, 23-0. In holding scoreless a New York team that ranked third in the League in scoring during the regular season, Carolina became the first NFL team to register a shutout on the road in the playoffs since the Los Angeles Rams posted a 9-0 victory at Tampa Bay (1/5/80) in the 1979 NFC Championship. Ironically, the last time head coach John Fox coached a playoff game at Giants Stadium, his defense also pitched a shutout. With Fox as the Giants defensive coordinator, New York shut out Minnesota, 41-0, in the 2000 NFC Championship. The shutout was Carolina's third in team history as the Panthers limited New York to 132 total net yards and rushed for 223 yards on offense.
January 15	The Panthers won their fourth consecutive road game in the playoffs to equal the NFL record for the most consecutive postseason road victories, previously accomplished by the Dallas Cowboys from 1975-81. With the win, head coach John Fox became only the fifth head coach in NFL history to record at least four postseason victories. Wide receiver Steve Smith amassed 218 receiving yards and two touchdowns on 12 receptions. His receiving yardage ranked as the most in team history and the fourth-highest postseason total in NFL history. His 12 catches tied for the second-highest total in NFL postseason annals.

BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM

OVERVIEW

Bank of America Stadium is located in the uptown district of Charlotte, NC, and was specifically designed for football by HOK Sports Facilities Group of Kansas City. The 73,778-seat, privately-financed, open-air, natural-grass stadium is designed as a self-contained headquarters, and includes training facilities, practice fields and administration offices. The stadium facade features a number of unique elements including massive arches and towers at the entries, clad in building materials that accent the Panthers black, blue and silver team colors. The interior has been designed to provide a generous ratio of concession and restroom facilities among wide and tall concourses, in addition to individual cup and program holders, wide seats, and state of the art sound, video and scoreboard systems.

DESIGN TEAM

HOK Sports Facilities Group has designed numerous sports facilities throughout the country.

CONSTRUCTION TEAM

The general contractors for Bank of America Stadium were the joint venture team of F.N. Thompson (Charlotte) and Turner Construction (New York), which also teamed to build the 23,600-seat Charlotte Coliseum.

LOCATION

The stadium and adjacent practice fields are located on 33 acres in uptown Charlotte, bordered by Interstate 277, Mint, Graham and Morehead streets. The stadium site has access to 30,000 existing parking spaces and more than 100 restaurants within a 15-minute walk. There are more than 30,000 hotel rooms in the Charlotte area.

DIMENSIONS

Stadium Footprint (900' L x 800' W)	15 acres
Public Area Surrounding Stadium (including picnic areas, walkways, etc)	11 acres
Practice Fields (two natural grass, one artificial)	7 acres
Total Stadium and adjacent landscaping and practice fields	33 acres
Height (from playing field to top of scoreboard)	13 stories (180')
Internal space (covered space)	1,600,000 sq ft
Concourse length (outermost circumference)	1/2 mile

SEATING CAPACITY

There are 73,778 seats at Bank of America Stadium distributed as follows:

Lower Bowl	22,714
Upper Bowl	37,138
Club Level	11,209
Suites	2,717

PLAYING FIELD

The stadium's state-of-the-art playing field is 398 feet long and 280 feet wide and features sophisticated drainage and irrigation systems. The playing surface is a hybrid Bermuda grass. The field drains between 10 and 12 inches of rain per hour. The field has a 10" crown.

SEATING WIDTH

The upper and lower seating areas feature a 19" width while the club seating is 21" wide.

BANK OF AMERICA CLUB SEATING

The Silver Club level at Bank of America Stadium, seating 11,209 patrons, is positioned along both sidelines of the field. Both Silver Club Members and Luxury Suite Members have access to a total of eight lounge areas. The main two 50-yard line lounges are the signature of the Silver Club, in addition to the four-themed lounges (one in each corner). The themed lounges offer a wide variety of options for members and their guests from the interactive fan TV studio and interactive kiosks to "Chalk Talks" from former Panthers players. Food and beverage selections include stadium favorites to sit down dining.

SUITES

There are 158 suites in Bank of America Stadium. The suites range from 10-person suites (12' wide x 32' deep) to 40-person suites (40' wide x 32' deep).
Suites have three main components: viewing seats, lounge space and toilet facilities.

- Viewing seats are fully upholstered chairs positioned behind operable glass along the front of the seat and include a beverage rail for convenience.
- The lounge space is the central portion of the suite, outfitted with lounge furniture and buffet tables. The rear of the space includes a service counter with a built-in sink, refrigerator and ice maker. A variety of game day catering options is available for suite tenants.
- Additionally, each suite has private toilet facilities at the rear of each suite. A coat and general storage closet also is located in this area.

All suites are fully upfitted with high-quality finishes, carpet and wall coverings, and closed circuit TV monitors are located above the service counter and in front of the viewing seats. Individual suite sound systems offer patrons a choice of audio options, and separate heating and cooling systems allow for individual suite climate control.

SUITE 87

From the seamless glass overlooking the field to the personalized lockers, private bar and television video wall carrying every NFL game in progress, the Suite 87 Club takes the NFL experience to new heights. Designed exclusively for the football fan with discriminating taste, Suite 87 Club membership is an experience unlike any other. The 7,860-square foot Suite 87 Club accommodates 124 members. Each Suite 87 Club membership consists of one reserved seat in the Suite Club with full amenity privileges as well as access to the Silver Club Level lounges, including the Panthers Den, Red Zone, Press Box and Locker Room.

GRIDIRON CLUB

Providing a unique environment and experience for 2008, the Carolina Panthers announce the newest space at Bank of America Stadium - the Gridiron Club.

Boasting an urban design incorporating distressed concrete and brushed steel, the Gridiron Club elevates your game day experience at Bank of America Stadium. Featuring assigned outside seating and an exclusive climate controlled lounge inside, the Gridiron Club combines the sights and sounds of the game with amenities that are available exclusively to Club members.

Outside, your NFL experience comes to life in three rows of terrace seating shielded from the elements by the ledge above and featuring radiant heat and cooling fans. If fans need a closer look at the action, flat screen televisions line the fascia of the seating area to review that last play.

Walk inside the seamless glass directly behind the viewing seats to the exclusive 10,000-square foot Club, featuring concierge service, premium parking, private restrooms, hot and cold market with food options and full service bar. If you need to check the score of another game, watch any one of the flat screen televisions throughout the Club showing each game in the NFL. Or, sit in the custom designed theatre equipped with a 103" television for the ultimate experience of the action inside.

VIEWING DISTANCE

The first row of seating is located 53 feet from the sideline, while the endline of the end zone is 20 feet from the field wall. All seats are elevated and designed for optimal viewing angles.

FOOD SERVICE

Provided by Stadium Food & Beverage, Bank of America Stadium offers an abundance of food options and a generous ratio of concession points of sale, designed to increase food quality while reducing customer waiting time.

The following is a breakdown of the number of concession points of sale:

Lower Concourse.....146 Points of Sale —1 per 150 seats in the lower bowl
Club/Suite Levels .....127 Points of Sale —1 per 102 seats in the Club/Suite levels
Upper Concourse .....156 Points of Sale —1 per 234 seats in the upper bowl
TOTAL.....429 Points of Sale —1 per 171 seats in the stadium

Stadiums normally offer one point of sale per every 300 to 350 spectators. Concession stands offer hot dogs, hamburgers, nachos, pizza, barbecue, ice cream and other stadium fare.

PANTHERVISION

PantherVision controls all of the video displays, message boards and television monitors at Bank of America Stadium, as well as the stadium's public address and sound system. PantherVision is a proud member of the Information Display and Entertainment Association, a national association of electronic display system professionals comprised of teams, facilities, manufacturers and suppliers. Following is a list of the various displays and technologies that are utilized in the stadium's seating bowl…

SIDELINE DISPLAYS: Located on each sideline, between the 300 and 400 levels, are displays and advertising panels that include:

- One 5' x 300' Daktronics ProAd LED display (for showing game-in-progress statistics and information, game prompts, out-of-town scores and advertising messages)

- Three 24′ x 32′ advertising panels
- One 24′ x 32′ Tri-Vision (three-sided) advertising panel
- Two 9′ x 12′ advertising panels
- One 12′ x 76′ advertising panel
- Four line array speaker clusters at the top of the west end scoreboard only

RESTROOM FACILITES

Bank of America Stadium offers a generous toilet fixture ratio of one fixture per 80 men and one per 70 women. Many restrooms feature diaper changing tables, and all are handicap accessible. In addition, unisex/family restrooms are available for parents escorting children of the opposite sex.

The total number of public restrooms throughout the stadium includes:

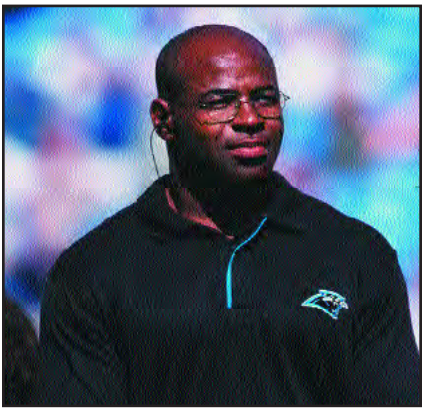
Lower Concourse	31	(10 men's, 10 women's, 11 unisex/family)
Club/Suite Levels	20	(8 men's, 8 women's, 4 unisex/family)
Upper Concourse	44	(18 men's, 18 women's, 8 unisex/family)
TOTAL	95	(36 men's, 36 women's, 23 unisex/family)

Stadiums normally offer a toilet fixture ratio of one per 100 men and one per 90 women.

OTHER EVENTS

In addition to Panthers games, Bank of America Stadium has been host to a number of other high profile events, including the Rev. Billy Graham's 1996 four-day Carolinas Crusade the Rolling Stones 1997 Bridges to Babylon tour. The stadium has been the site for numerous college football and college and professional soccer matches. This year, Virginia Tech travels to Charlotte for a Labor Day weekend match up with East Carolina. In addition, Bank of America stadium hosts the annual Meineke Car Care bowl each December. Bank of America stadium is the site for the 2010-11 ACC football championship game. Future regular season college football games include South Carolina versus East Carolina (2011 and 2014).

PANTHERS HALL OF HONOR



On September 21, 1997 former team president Mike McCormack became the first member of the Panthers Hall of Honor. In 1998, he was joined by former linebacker Sam Mills, who entered as the first former Panthers player to be so honored.

Both Mills and McCormack, who retired as president of the Carolina Panthers in March 1996, were recognized for their high contributions to the Panthers organization with a life-sized bronze statue sculpted by Todd Andrews, who created the famous bronze Panthers that flank each stadium entrance. The statues were placed at the northeast corner of the stadium where they will be joined by statues of future inductees.

"There is no one more appropriate than Mike to start our Hall of Honor," said Panthers Owner/Founder Jerry Richardson at the time of McCormack's induction. "The Carolina Panthers would not even exist without Mike's contributions, and he epitomizes all we want the Panthers to symbolize."

While McCormack's National Football League career spanned five decades and a number of teams, he may have left his most indelible mark on the Panthers. Starting as a consultant in 1989, McCormack provided an invaluable contact for the Richardson ownership group as they lobbied NFL ownership and hierarch for credibility early in the expansion process. After the Panthers overcame overwhelming odds to land the franchise by a unanimous vote in October 1993, McCormack was first general manager before being named president.

"Mike provided a road map for our organization, and we have reaped the benefits of his foresight and experience," says successor Mark Richardson. "By his induction as the original member of our Hall of Honor, it sets a high standard for all who follow."

If anyone could meet McCormack's standard it is Mills, who became a Panthers standard-bearer.

"Sam Mills has meant a lot to this organization and has set a high standard for our players both on and off the field. It is only fitting that he is recognized with the Carolina Panthers highest honor," said Jerry Richardson.

While Mills had a long NFL career, his accomplishments with the Panthers were the basis of his selection. His memorable interception return for a touchdown spurred Carolina to the first win in team history in 1995, and his interception against Dallas sealed the Panthers win in the NFC divisional playoff following the 1996 season.

Mills played 15 years as a professional, starting 171-of-181 NFL games and earning five Pro Bowl selections. Mills appeared in his final Pro Bowl as a representative of the Panthers in 1996 at the age of 37.

Regarded as one of the most savvy players in the game, Mills led his team in tackles 10 times and eclipsed the 100-tackle plateau in eight seasons. As a prized unrestricted free agent in 1995, he became the cornerstone of the Panthers defense and was the only player to start every game during the Panthers first three seasons.

With McCormack and Mills, an administrator and coach were recognized in the Hall of Honor. In the opening regular season game against Green Bay in 2004, the PSL owners who made the stadium and franchise possible were also honored at halftime. The Panthers sold over 60,000 Permanent Seat Licenses to help fund the construction of Bank of America Stadium.

"The stadium and team would not be here without the PSL Owners and they have been the backbone of our support," says President Mark Richardson. "It was appropriate to include them in the Hall of Honor for making a NFL franchise in the Carolinas a reality."

The Carolina Panthers summer training camp home is at Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C. The Panthers are housed in Wofford's sterling 60,000 square-foot Richardson Physical Activities Building, which boasts a spacious weight room, locker room and training facilities in addition to coaches offices and meeting rooms.

A member of the Southern Conference and NCAA Division I, Wofford is one of the smallest school in the nation playing Division I football with its enrollment of 1,400. The Terriers compete in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), formerly known as Division I-AA. Over the last six seasons, Wofford is the SoCon's second-winningest football program with a 54-21 overall record and .720 winning percentage.

The 2003 Terrier football team captured the Southern Conference championship and advanced to the FCS national semifinals. In 2007, Wofford won the Southern Conference title and defeated Montana in the first round of the FCS playoffs. The Terriers reached the FCS playoffs again in the 2008 season.

Wofford football coach Mike Ayers was the 2003 recipient of the Eddie Robinson Award as the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year. He has been named SoCon Coach of the Year four times, most recently in 2007. He is among the winningest active coaches in the nation with 141 victories in 21 seasons.

Academically, Wofford's football team is traditionally among the top 10 percent in the nation as judged by the Academic Progress Rate (APR). The Terriers have placed 72 student-athletes on the Academic All-Southern Conference team in the last six years, more than double the number of the second place team. Wofford has had at least 10 players on the academic squad each year, including 16 in 2008.

In recent years, the Wofford men's basketball team has posted victories over Cincinnati, Clemson, Virginia Tech, Auburn and Purdue. The baseball team has defeated South Carolina and Tennessee in the last two years and in 2007 won the Southern Conference Tournament Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

Among its alumni, the athletic program counts Panthers Owner/Founder Jerry Richardson as well as former Air Force head football coach Fisher DeBerry and ESPN personality Wendi Nix. Wofford receives strong support from its alumni and friends. The Terrier Club, with 100 percent of all contributions supporting scholarships for Wofford student-athletes, raised a record $1.5 million in 2008.

Wofford consistently lands on 'best value' lists in various national college guides and publications. Among those are the 2009 editions of Kiplinger's Personal Finance, US News and World Report and The Princeton Review. The Village, Wofford's apartment-style housing for senior students, has also received a number of national recognitions.

Having conducted its first session during the 1854-55 academic year, Wofford is one of only a handful of American colleges of that era to have operated continuously on its original site. Over 5,000 'noble trees' have been planted since 1992. The entire 150-acre campus is maintained as a national arboretum.

Wofford ranks fifth in the nation among baccalaureate institutions in the percentage of students receiving academic credit for studies abroad. The first independent college in South Carolina to receive a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, Wofford has a proud history. Among its graduates are the founders of Duke and Vanderbilt universities, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the National Beta Club.

THE TOPCATS

PRESENTED BY

GOLDTOE MORETZ

In 2009, the team is proud to welcome back the TopCats, cheerleaders for the Carolina Panthers. The TopCats represent all regions of the Carolinas and range in age from 21 to 36. Their careers are in a variety of distinguished professions, including business, finance, medicine and teaching. The TopCats help cheer the Panthers to victory and entertain fans at every home game at Bank of America Stadium.

Auditions for the TopCats are a comprehensive and intense process. The final squad members are chosen based on their personalities, showmanship, dance skills, professionalism and physical fitness.

Tina Becker serves as the cheerleader/mascot programs manager and oversees all aspects of both programs. She was a member of the TopCats inaugural squad in 1996 and spent three years as a Panthers cheerleader before joining the TopCats staff in 1999.

Richelle Grant is the TopCats choreographer and coordinator. Grant is a five-year veteran of the TopCats squad and joined the TopCats staff in 2005. She also cheered at the University of South Carolina, where she earned a BA in communications.

The TopCats are visible throughout the Carolinas at corporate appearances and charitable events.

The Panthers cheerleading squad is sponsored by GoldToe Moretz, exclusive supplier of all apparel and sockwear to the TopCats.
